

Experience the future of the clean energy economy firsthand with a guided boat tour of Dominion's Coastal Virginia Offshore Wind installation

Join Chambers for Innovation and Clean Energy (CICE) and the North Carolina Sustainable Energy Association (NCSEA) for a unique opportunity to get up close with the impressive turbine installation.

Tailored for chamber of commerce executives, business and economic development leaders, stakeholders, and policymakers, this exclusive event offers direct access to cutting-edge technology and insights into the rapidly growing offshore wind economy from industry experts. John Larson, Director of Public Policy and Economic Development at Dominion Energy, will provide valuable information on construction activities, economic impacts, job creation, and supply chain opportunities associated with the project.

Don't miss this chance to witness the power of wind energy and its role in shaping regional economies.
