

Grand Rounds at Memorial Hospital, 1165 Montgomery Drive, Santa Rosa

All activities are held in Conference Rooms C-D (unless otherwise specified): All activities are held on the 2nd, 3rd, & 4th Friday of each month except December (unless otherwise specified) Time: 12:00 Buffet Lunch – Presentation 12:30–1:45 p.m.

All Physicians are welcome and can obtain up to 1.25 continuing medical education (cme) units.

Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital is accredited by the by the Institute of Medical Quality, and the California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital designates each live activity for a maximum of 1.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Our Continuing Medical Education Program offers a wide variety of highly regarded conferences designed to enhance the performance of physicians in all disciplines.

November 8, 2019 - Bariatric Patients - Scott Perryman, MD

Dr. Perryman is a board-certified General Surgeon. He graduated from McMaster University in 1997 with an honors bachelor degree in biochemistry and from Howard University College of Medicine in 2002. He completed his surgical residency at Stanford University in 2009, a postdoctoral stem cell research fellowship in 2006, and an advanced minimally invasive laparoscopic and bariatric surgery fellowship at Stanford in 2010. Dr. Perryman graduated medical school a member of the prestigious Alpha Omega Alpha National Medical Honor Society. He is also a member of multiple surgical societies including the Society of American Gastrointestinal and Endoscopic Surgeons (SAGES), the American Society of Metabolic and Bariatric Surgeons (ASMBS) and the American College of Surgeons (ACS) and has presented his research at the ACS Clinical Congress. He joined Prima in September of 2010 and is located at Sonoma Valley Hospital.

November 15, 2019 - New Strategies in the Evaluation and Management of Malignancy and Hormonal Function of Thyroid and Adrenal Masses - Yuichiro Nakai, MD

Dr. Nakai is board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and is Board-certified in Endocrinology, Diabetes and Metabolism. He graduated from the Saint Louis School of Medicine, and did his internal medicine residency and endocrinology fellowship at UC Davis.

November 22, 2019 - SCHWARTZ ROUNDS

Andrew S. Wagner, M.D. (Moderator) – Specializing in Family Medicine DESIRED OUTCOMES: At the end of this activity learners will be better able to do the following: 1) Describe the social, emotional, ethical, and personal issues that arise during the care of patients and their impact on caregivers 2) Demonstrate enhanced communication with patients, family members, and colleagues 3) Value opportunities to explore and understand multiple perspectives across professions and disciplines 4) Value opportunities to provide and receive professional support 5) Model behaviors of nonjudgmental listening and respect 6) Relate the organizational values to patient care 7) Describe resources available to assist in the care of a patient and family 8) Demonstrate sensitivity towards cultural differences represented in our patient population *This activity will encompass the following desirable physician attributes: Patient Care & Procedural Skills, Professionalism, Interpersonal & Communication Skills, and Systems Based Practice. The presentational method for this activity will be Case Presentation with Learner Participation, Panel Discussion, and Small Group Discussion/Roundtable.