

Acute outpatient management of bipolar mania, including how to recognize, how to treat, and when to send to the hospital

All healthcare providers are encouraged to attend.
Don't miss this opportunity to earn CME credit.

DISCUSSANT

Megan Smith, MD, Psychiatry
Adventist Health Ukiah Valley

Dr. Smith specializes in the assessment and treatment of mental health concerns such as schizophrenia / schizoaffective disorder, bipolar disorder, depression, anxiety and substance use disorders. She focuses on providing hope to patients and their families and is passionate about reducing the stigma surrounding mental health concerns.

Megan Smith, MD earned her medical degree from Creighton University School of Medicine in Omaha, Nebraska. Dr. Smith completed her residency at University of Wisconsin in Madison, Wisconsin.

Friday, December 2, 2022
8 – 9 a.m.

Attend virtually on TEAMS
(link will be provided upon RSVP)

RSVP to Bridget Sholin
sholinbl@ah.org or 707-367-3629

No need to RSVP if you are on the regular routing list.

Adventist Health Ukiah Valley is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Adventist Health Ukiah Valley is accredited by the California Medical Association (CMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Adventist Health Ukiah Valley designates this live educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™.

DISCLOSURE TO AUDIENCE***

"All faculty, planners or staff involved with planning and/or presenting this activity has declared no financial relationship with any relevant commercial interest."