

Grand Rounds at Memorial Hospital, 1165 Montgomery Drive, Santa Rosa

All activities are held in Conference Rooms A-D (unless otherwise specified).

All activities are held on the 2nd, 3rd, & 4th Friday of each month except December (unless otherwise specified)

Time: 12:00 Buffet or Box Lunch – Presentation 12:30–1:45 p.m.

All Physicians are welcome, and can obtain up to 1.25 cme units if on the medical staff.

Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital is accredited by the by the Institute of Medical Quality, and the California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Santa Rosa Memorial Hospital designates each live activity for a maximum of 1.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. Our Continuing Medical Education Program offers a wide variety of highly regarded conferences designed to enhance the performance of physicians in all disciplines.

September 13                      Suicide Awareness: Risk Assessment

John R. Chamberlain, M.D., Assistant Director, Program in Psychiatry and the Law, and Parnassus Site Director, Residency Training Program, UCSF.

September 20                      Prostate Cancer

Matthew R. Cooperberg, M.D., M.P.H., Professor of Urology; Epidemiology & Biostatistics, and Helen Diller Family Chair in Urology, UCSF.

September 27                      Schwartz Rounds

DESIRED OUTCOMES: At the end of this activity learners will be better able to do the following: 1) Describe the social, emotional, ethical, and personal issues that arise during the care of patients and their impact on caregivers 2) Demonstrate enhanced communication with patients, family members, and colleagues 3) Value opportunities to explore and understand multiple perspectives across professions and disciplines 4) Value opportunities to provide and receive professional support 5) Model behaviors of nonjudgmental listening and respect 6) Relate the organizational values to patient care 7) Describe resources available to assist in the care of a patient and family 8) Demonstrate sensitivity towards cultural differences represented in our patient population. This activity will encompass the following desirable physician attributes: Patient Care & Procedural Skills, Professionalism, Interpersonal & Communication Skills, and Systems-Based Practice. The presentational method for this activity will be Case Presentation with Learner Participation, Panel Discussion, and Small Group Discussion/Roundtable. Each Schwartz Rounds discusses a different case.

October 11    Stereotactic Radiosurgery (SRS) & Stereotactic Body Radiotherapy (SBRT).

Anna Paulsson, M.D., St. Joseph Health Petaluma - Cancer Center, M.D., Wake Forest University School of Medicine; Internship in Internal Medicine, Wake Forest University School Of Medicine; Residency, Radiation Oncology, University Of San Francisco - 2018

October 18    Transfusion Guidelines

Salima Shaikh, M.D., Board-Certified in Clinical Pathology and Blood Banking/Transfusion Medicine. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree at Wellesley College and Doctorate of Medicine at the University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences. She attended Massachusetts General Hospital for her Clinical Pathology residency training and the Harvard Medical School Fellowship Program in Transfusion Medicine for her fellowship training.

October 25    Lipid Management

Eleanor G. Levin, M.D., board certified in both Internal Medicine and in Cardiovascular Diseases by the American Board of Internal Medicine. and is affiliated with Stanford Health Care-Stanford Hospital

November 8    Pulmonary Fibrosis (tentative)

More details when confirmed

November 15    Thyroid Disease

Yuichiro Nakai, M.D., Board Certified in Endocrinology, Diabetes and Metabolism, Practicing in Santa Rosa.

November 22 Schwartz Rounds

See September 27 for an explanation of Schwartz Rounds.

December: No presentations

The presentational method for these live activities will be Lecture, Case Presentation, and Q&A Period, unless otherwise noted. For the CME schedule, please call the CME Hotline at 707-525-5300, ext. 2247. For other questions regarding our CME Program, please call 707-525-5292.