

LOSS OF DREAMS, AMBIGUITY, A PANDEMIC, AND RESILIENCY

Virtual Continuing Education Event

Thursday, October 14th 6:30 - 8:00 pm CDT

Loss of Dreams, Ambiguity, A Pandemic, and Resiliency

Disruptive changes are commonplace and challenging. Resiliency is required, though not always easy to activate. Coping well can be all the more challenging when the changes include loss of dreams for individuals and families and the ambiguity of an on-going pandemic.

In this practical session, participants will be presented with perspectives and tools useful at times like these. Stress overload, daily worries, and grief will be addressed along with honest hope and resiliency practices.
