

Moms for Liberty – Williamson County, Tennessee

In most countries the citizens are given their liberties by the government. In the United States, we fought for our liberty and then gave the government its authority. As citizens we have the responsibility to keep this government accountable to us. The mission of Moms for Liberty is to teach the principles of liberty and limited government, promote parental and individual rights, communicate issues impacting our families, hold decision makers accountable and limit government overreach.

We would love to have you volunteer with our group of active citizens willing to support our nation's founding principles of freedom, the importance of family, and the education of our children.
