THE SEARCH FOR THE 11TH BISHOP

TO EQUIP THE SAINTS TO BUILD UP THE BODY

EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF GEORGIA

The Episcopal Diocese of Georgia's origins date back to the beginning of the colony itself, in 1733.

In 1907, the Annual Convention of the diocese officially voted to divide, and the Diocese of Atlanta was formed. The Diocese of Georgia now comprises 69 congregations spread across roughly the lower half of the state.

The XI Bishop of the Diocese of Georgia will be elected in a vote by orders at the 198th Convention, November 15-16, 2019 in Statesboro, Georgia.

Consecration of the new bishop will be at 11 AM, Saturday, May 30th at the Johnny Mercer Theater in Savannah. The Presiding Bishop, the Most Rev. Michael Curry, will officiate.

Bishop Curry will also preach at a Eucharist in Forsyth Park at 11 AM, May 31st.
