2025 ICON WORKSHOP
The Kitchen Madonna

We are excited to announce that St. Augustine of Canterbury Church will be hosting an icon workshop October 23, 24, and 25. Renowned iconographer Peter Pearson will be returning to lead the workshop. Byzantine Iconography is a highly structured and disciplined art form which combines prayer and painting techniques to create serene images of Christ, Mary, the angels and the saints following centuries old guidelines. Peter has been studying and painting icons for over 50 years. He's authored three books on the subject and has painted hundreds of icons for churches, monasteries, seminaries, convents, and individuals all over the world. Peter's students number in the thousands and each has walked away with an icon of their very own. No previous experience or natural talent is required. We paint, pray, and follow the simple step-by-step instructions.

"The Kitchen Madonna," by Rumer Godden, tells the story of a young boy named Gregory and his family's Ukrainian housekeeper, Marta. Marta, a war refugee, is deeply saddened by the lack of a special place in the kitchen for a religious icon like she had in her Ukrainian home. Gregory, initially withdrawn, becomes determined to create a "kitchen Madonna" for Marta, leading him on a journey of research, artistic endeavor, and self-discovery.
