

Dr. Courtney Orzel is the Associate Director of Professional Development for the Illinois Association of School Administrators. Previously, she served as superintendent of Lemont-Bromberek SD113A for 6 years. She has held positions as a middle school principal, assistant principal, and teacher. Dr. Orzel has been honored with recognition from the AASA as a finalist for the Women in Leadership Award in February of 2019, has led the IASA SuperWomen initiative in support of women in leadership, and has led numerous workshops, PD sessions, and podcasts.