

Gifts for Clean Slate Coalition Residents

Gifts for the ladies go in the bags. Gifts for the house go behind the bags.

Resident #1 In her 40's, recently got her driver's license restored, needs gas cards for transportation to see her children, get to work in town, medical appointments, etc. Loves to cook for the house and her children when they visit her. Interested in learning to budget her money. Likes crafty things. Ideas: journal pens and pencils, grown up coloring books and pencils, inspirational books, gift card to City Lights Café, inexpensive earrings, blanket or quilt for single bed, etc etc.

Resident #2 In her 20's, likes to run and needs good running/hiking socks. Interested in learning to budget her money. Likes crafty things. Ideas: journal pens and pencils, good cotton socks, good gloves, gift card to any clothing store, water bottle, picture frames, hair accessories, blanket or quilt for single bed. etc etc.

Many ladies who come to the house have only the clothes on their backs and no personal supplies of any kind. Here are a list of potential gifts for the house:

Coffee (bags or k cups), paper plates, paper towels, kitchen linens, bath towels wash cloths and hand towels, toilet paper, feminine supplies, grocery store gift cards, books on budgeting for households for the house library , sheets for single beds, blankets or quilts for the beds, combs and hair brushes, razors, shampoo, conditioner, shower soap, lotion, pajamas of any size, toothbrushes and toothpaste.

Not needed: household cleaning products, used clothing and shoes (there are plenty of these items at this time).
