Welcome to the MTCASA Board, Bob Brown.

Bob retired in 2013 after more than 35 years in various executive and finance-related positions in private industry. He began his career in public accounting with KPMG in Billings then moved on to work for a small Billings-based oil and gas exploration firm. The last 26 years of his career were spent with two independent Coca-Cola bottlers, one in Billings (for 9 and a half years) and then in Sacramento, California (for 16 and a half years). Bob was raised in Billings, spent nearly 4 years in the U.S. Air Force after high school (Billings Central), then graduated from the University of Montana in 1974 with a degree in Business Administration (Accounting emphasis). Bob has three grown children and two granddaughters and is enjoying retirement in Billings with his wife, Mary.
