Welcome to New Board Members & Staff:
Joe Walsh, Kim Casey, Allison Dunne, Maggie Jensen (staff)

Joe Walsh

M.Ed Counseling, M.Ed Educational Leadership

Joe is currently the principal at Newman Elementary in Billings, where he is serving his sixth year in this administrator role. Prior to this position, Joe worked for eleven years with kids and families as a school counselor and LCPC in his own private practice. For twenty years he has shared his passion for helping families by working as a crisis counselor, basketball coach, mentor, advocate, and member of the parent advisory committee for The Children's Clinic. During this time, Joe has also served as an adjunct professor at Montana State University-Billings, teaching several classes in school counseling and human services. Recently, Joe was named chair of the Advisory Committee for the Family Support Network in Billings. He and his wife have two children and enjoy being active in their community.

Allison Dunne

Allison is the Director of the Bitterroot CASA Program in Ravalli County. Allison began her work with families in Ravalli County with Women's Opportunity & Resource Development (WORD) serving in the Montana Literacy Support Corp as an AmeriCorps Volunteer and as a Prevention Resource Center AmeriCorps VISTA. Hired by WORD after her terms of service, Allison coordinated the Montana Literacy Support program in Ravalli County, and developed school and community based Family Resource Centers Program, Youth Leadership and Tutoring Programs, and Learning Communities for Adults. Following her 10-year tenure with WORD, Allison worked with the YWCA in Missoula for 5 years coordinating the Rapid Re-Housing Program for homeless families in Missoula. She has been directing the Bitterroot CASA program since 2019. Allison is the mother of three, grandmother of one, she has been part of the agricultural community for 25 years, a local producer, and proprietor of La Capra Rossa Dairy.

Kim Casey

Kim is the Director of CASA CAN, the program serving Cascade County, located in Great Falls. Kim has been with CASA CAN since 2019. Before joining the CASA family, Kim founded Re Services in Great Falls, an organization that aims to reduce recidivism within the foster care system and assist in rebuilding the lives of those within it. Re Services provides resources to families to assist in the goal of reunification. She also previously was a staff member at Youth Dynamics, in Great Falls, as well.

Maggie Jensen

Maggie recently graduated from the University of Montana, magna cum laude, with her BAs in Sociology and Political Science with a minor in Nonprofit Administration. During her time at UM, she volunteered with multiple nonprofits in the Missoula area, including an internship with CASA of Missoula. She was also a 2022 MT Baucus Leader where she got the privilege of working with the MT League of Cities and Towns. Maggie was a member of the Davidson Honors College and the Franke Global Leadership Initiative while at UM. She is originally from Power, MT.
