Fjordhaven seeks to bring a renewed sense of balance, peace and purpose based on a deepened understanding of Sacred Grace and the interconnectedness of all life through various educational, creative, spiritual and/or experiential opportunities, services or products.

FJORDHAVEN FOREST

Fjordhaven Forest is an increasingly rare place of solitude and spiritual renewal in east central Minnesota. With nearly fifty-five acres of woods and wetlands, the Forest borders several hundred feet of shoreline aside a secluded “fjord-like” bay of Lake Mille Lacs, hence the name of Fjordhaven.

Protected forever under a conservation easement held by Minnesota Land Trust, Fjordhaven Forest provides a safe refuge to all who make their home there.

Privately owned and managed by Sue and Doug, this sacred place is not open to the general public, but it is shared by invitation on occasion and in alignment with Fjordhaven Services.

FJORDHAVEN SERVICES

To welcome deeper spiritual growth and renewal, Fjordhaven Services seeks to nurture holy listening by encouraging contemplative practices.

At Fjordhaven or elsewhere:

- Facilitated retreat experiences (Fjordhaven does not have group lodging facilities for overnight gatherings)
- Individual and/or small group spiritual direction
- Seminars/trainings

On site at Fjordhaven:

- Guided or silent prayer walks
- Healing garden
- Labyrinth
- Small prayer circle/worship ring
- Limited use rustic hermitage guest cabin

Inspired by the woods and waters of Fjordhaven Forest, our programs and services seek to honor the Creator and to enhance healing and renewal for all who encounter Fjordhaven, and especially for those persons engaged in the helping professions and/or in caregiver roles.

As owner-caretaker-dwellers of Fjordhaven, Doug Jacobson MBA/MSW and Sue Lyback LSW/Christos-certified Spiritual Director, (husband and wife team) invite you to experience Fjordhaven. Contact us for more information.
