

2023 EcoFaith Summit
The Pollinator Plot
Cross+Pollination in a Time of Ecological Crisis

Saturday, April 15, Gloria Dei, Duluth and on-line

Engagement Sessions

Plotting for life in a time of ecological crisis 1:00-1:45p.m. and 2:00-2:45p.m.

In person at Gloria Dei

1:00p.m.

Church as Demonstration Plot

Your congregation as a model for practices that serve the whole community of creation by integrating creation care into all aspects of our lives and ministry

Pollinating Public Action

Real models of community action and advocacy for the interdependent web of life

2:00p.m.

Planting the Pollinator Plot

Practical guidance on how your congregation can establish pollinator habitat
at church, at home and in the neighborhood

Cross+Pollinating Relationships

Strategies for creation care collaboration among people of all ages and demographics within and among churches, communities, and synods

On-line over zoom

1:00p.m.

Planting the Pollinator Plot

Practical guidance on how your congregation can establish pollinator habitat
at church, at home and in the neighborhood

2:00p.m.

Storytelling for Care of Creation and Eco-justice across Differences

How digital and in-person storytelling can foster understanding across polarized communities
Professor Mary Hess, Luther Seminary