CLEVELAND
CHAMBER CHOIR

The Cleveland Chamber Choir provides audiences with exceptional performances of unique and diverse repertoire, blending music by living composers with nine centuries of choral repertoire, and emphasizing the works of composers historically excluded from the concert hall. Since its founding in 2015, the Choir has won acclaim for inclusive programming, for partnering with community charities, and for the free concerts that ensure everyone can afford to hear world-class professional choral singing.

The mission of the Cleveland Chamber Choir is to nurture and amplify the strength and resonance of Northeast Ohio's choral artistry, bringing together performing artists, administrators, audience members, and donors with the philosophy that choral music is a vehicle for good in the world that should be accessible and welcoming to all.

CHAMBER ORCHESTRA
Daniel Meyer | Artistic Director & Conductor

Highly acclaimed BlueWater Chamber Orchestra is Northeast Ohio's premier chamber ensemble. With its theme of "From Cleveland, For Cleveland," BlueWater features world class professional musicians who live in Northeast Ohio presenting inspiring and exciting concerts for the communities of Cleveland and beyond. Through captivating performances of the unique works scored for small orchestra, BlueWater gives intimate interpretations of romantic and modern compositions while showcasing the classical repertoire as originally presented by the composers. Critics have acknowledged BlueWater as "essential contributors to Cleveland's classical-music scene" and acclaim "the brilliance and professionalism that has become a trademark of BlueWater's performances."

Now in its 16th season, BlueWater is led by popular Artistic Director Daniel Meyer. A Cleveland native, Maestro Meyer is also Artistic Director of the Erie Philharmonic and Lakeside Symphony. Known for his innovative programming, engaging presence and keen musical intellect, Meyer immediately connects with audiences from school age to senior citizens. Under his leadership, the orchestra seeks to make classical music accessible to those who might not otherwise have an opportunity to hear live concerts.

BlueWater Chamber Orchestra is also known for its intriguing collaborations with other organizations of Cleveland's diverse arts scene, including Cleveland Ballet, Cleveland Chamber Choir, and Ohio Contemporary Ballet.
