COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

University Hospitals
Drusinsky Sports Medicine Institute

This season brought us new partnerships in the community including the Cleveland Browns and University Hospitals Drusinsky Sports Medicine Institute for Browns Night at the Ballet, a perfect pairing with Great Lakes Brewing Company's Christmas Ale, Kimpton Schofield Hotel packages, and even Disney Entertainment Group!

We welcomed 599 students from 12 districts and home school programs and 61 Girl Scouts to the holiday magic of The Nutcracker. All received special educational materials to learn more about the performance and ballet.

ANGELS, GEMS, AND MORE

Every performance featured special activities and appearances to create a memorable Nutcracker experience – from the renowned Singing Angels and school choirs caroling in the lobby to Dew Drop gems and photos with the Cleveland Grays and dancers.

Our patrons purchased 750 souvenir nutcrackers at the holiday boutique.

750

$18,000

Our female artists wore more than 180 pairs of pointe shoes, totaling about $18,000 in shoes alone!

120

More than 120 cast members, including our company artists and 88 students from Academy of Cleveland Ballet and local studios filled the stage to bring The Nutcracker to life.

Support

The Nutcracker was generously sponsored by RPM International Inc and was presented in celebration of Mr. Cleveland Ballet, Dick Pogue.
