

IPBES Natures Futures Framework workshop: Call for Nominations

Future Earth is calling for experts who are interested in participating in the IPBES Natures Futures Framework workshop, which will be held in South Africa (tentatively) from 14-16 November 2022. Nominated experts should have recognized expertise related to the future of biodiversity and nature's contributions to people across different scales and disciplines, for example through the use of models, scenario development, visioning, storylines, or other methods. All nominated experts will need to be available for the full duration of the workshop (held in English).

To be nominated through Future Earth, please fill out the application form and attach your curriculum vitae, through the dedicated web portal HERE. If needed, click here to make an account on the IPBES portal.

As part of the application form, you will need to provide the details of a nominating organization. To be nominated through Future Earth, use the following:

- Type of nominating body: Organisation
- Organisation nominator: Future Earth (625)
- Job title: Science Officer
- First name: Natalie
- Last name: Chong
