RE: CAU-77-23 An Action Relating to Law and Order and Naabik’íyáti Committees and the Navajo Nation Council; Enacting the “Navajo Nation Victim’s Rights Act of 2023”; Amending Title 17 of the Navajo Nation Code

Dear Speaker Curley,

I am pleased to sign into law the Navajo Nation Victim’s Rights Act of 2023. The Navajo Nation Victim Rights Act of 2023 amends Title 17 of the Navajo Nation Code by expanding the rights of victims and their families.

Specifically, the Act ensures that victims of crimes are treated with ké, fairness, respect and dignity within the Navajo criminal justice system. Through the Act, victims will receive adequate support, proper notice, and vital resources. Additionally, the Act enhances victim privacy and broadens protections for victims of crimes.

As the first Navajo Nation President to have an employee in my office dedicated to the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Relatives crisis, I strongly support this Act and further efforts to continue to improve and strengthen our Navajo Nation systems to protect the Navajo people.

Finally, I thank the many people who have been working for many years to make this Act a reality. Your steadfastness and commitment will benefit future generations of Navajo People.

Sincerely,

Dr. Buu Nygren, President
THE NAVAJO NATION

RESOLUTION OF THE
NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL
25th NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL – FIRST YEAR, 2023

AN ACT
RELATING TO THE LAW AND ORDER AND NAABIK'ÍYÁTI' COMMITTEES, AND
THE NAVAJO NATION COUNCIL; ENACTING THE “NAVAJO NATION VICTIM’S RIGHTS ACT OF 2023”; AMENDING TITLE 17 OF THE NAVAJO NATION CODE

BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE. AUTHORITY

A. The Law and Order Committee was established as a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with the delegated responsibilities to “[t]o protect the rights and interests of the Navajo People by improving the quality and effectiveness of the justice system within the Navajo Nation” and to review and make recommendations to the Navajo Nation Council on proposed Navajo Nation Code amendments and enactments. 2 N.N.C. §§ 600(A), 600(C)(2) and 601(B)(14).

B. The Naabik’íyáti’ Committee was established as a standing committee of the Navajo Nation Council with the delegated responsibility to hear and act on proposed legislation that requires final action by the Navajo Nation Council. 2 N.N.C. §§ 164(A)(9) and 700(A)(2).

C. The Navajo Nation Council is the governing body of the Navajo Nation and must review and approve enactments or amendments of positive law, i.e., changes to the Navajo Nation Code. 2 N.N.C. § 102(A) and § 164(A).

SECTION TWO. PURPOSE

The Navajo Nation Victim’s Rights Act of 2023 (“2023 Act”) is established to provide awareness to victims of crimes of their rights and the protections and support available to them. The rights and protections set forth in the 2023 Act extend beyond basic emergency needs by providing victims safety and support through statutory requirements and awareness. Through advocacy and awareness, victims are provided healing throughout the legal process as they move towards restoring Ké.

SECTION THREE. FINDINGS

A. The most common criminal offenses reported on the Navajo Nation are violent assaults involving weapons and/or serious bodily injury, including sexual assault and rape.
B. While the Navajo Nation’s criminal statutes reference “victim” within the description of offenses, the Navajo Nation Code does not include supporting victim’s rights. The 2023 Act set forth herein adopt specific provisions directly supporting and expanding victim’s rights.

C. The 2023 Act’s amendments, to the Navajo Nation’s criminal statutes were developed during the 24th Navajo Nation Council through Work Groups led by the Law and Order Committee and the Chief Prosecutor. The amendments developed by former President Russell Begaye’s Executive Branch Work Group during the 23rd Navajo Nation Council were incorporated, fully or in part, into the 2023 Act.

D. In addition, the Naabik’íyáti’ Committee Sexual Assault and Prevention Workgroup took a holistic approach by including concerns and suggestions from advocates, officers, and the community in their recommendations to the 2023 Act’s Victim’s Rights and Advocacy Services section.

E. The Navajo Nation Department of Justice reviewed the proposed amendments developed during the 24th Navajo Nation Council that are included in the 2023 Act and deemed them to be legally sufficient.

F. The 25th Navajo Nation Council determines that the Navajo Nation Victim’s Rights Act of 2023’s amendments to Title 17 of the Navajo Nation Code are necessary and vital to prioritize victim’s rights and enhance protections for all crime victims and their families as they await justice, as well as to ensure adequate deterrence and punishment for violent acts that threaten Navajo families and Navajo communities.

SECTION FOUR. ENACTMENT

The Navajo Nation Council hereby enacts the “Navajo Nation Victim’s Rights Act of 2023” and amends Title 17 of the Navajo Nation Code as follows:

Title 17. Law and Order
Chapter 1. Enforcement of Criminal Code

§ 209. General definitions
CC. "Support Advocate" means a person who is employed or volunteers to provide information, referrals, resources, and direct support to the victim. This can include community-based advocates or systems-based advocates. This individual is not a legal advocate;
