Mixed Media Landscapes: Fall Edition
Friday, October 4 | 12:15-1:15pm

Capture the coziness and warmth of the fall season in this laid-back afternoon class. We’ll use a variety of media to practice mark-making and create a lush landscape composition. This is the perfect class for beginners because we’ll focus less on realism and more on creating expressive marks and exciting textures for a truly dynamic work of art. Bring the fall leaves to life with your own personal style. No experience necessary; bring your own lunch!

Instructor: Ana Morales
$12, $10 Members

Intro to the Potter’s Wheel
Saturdays, October 12 and 19 | 10-11:30am, 12:30-2pm, OR 2:30-4pm

The best way to learn how to use the potter’s wheel is to spend some quality time with one! Instructor and ceramic artist Mariam Foster will guide you in this one-on-one intensive workshop. This two-day class is designed to give you uninterrupted time to practice, so your registration reserves a 90-minute time slot that will be the same for both days. On the first day, Mariam will walk you through each part of the throwing process and allow you time to practice. The second day allows you to return to the wheel to enhance your skills and ask questions. This is a great way to get a taste of the art form and decide whether a longer class series is right for you!

Fee reserves your spot for the same 90-minute class time, one on Saturday, 10/12, and one on 10/19.

Handmade Paper
Friday, October 18 | 12:15-1:15pm

Making your own paper is easier than you might think! In this class, we’ll learn the process of handmade paper and then make some of our own using recycled paper, water, and blenders. Feel free to bring bits of your own scrap paper if you’d like to recycle something that’s meaningful to you. No experience necessary; bring your own lunch!

Instructor: Ana Morales

Hunt Slonem-Inspired Animal Pattern Painting
Friday, October 25 | 12:15-1:15pm

Hunt Slonem’s iconic bunny and bird paintings can transform any space into a whimsical wonderland. In this class, develop your own signature animal pattern inspired by the works on view in the exhibition HUNTOPIA. You will leave this quick lunch break class with a small framed original artwork of your own unique design! No experience necessary; bring your own lunch!

Instructor: Stephanie Fallon
$12, $10 Members

Hunt Slonem-Inspired Floor Cloth: Weekend Intensive
Saturday, October 26 and Sunday, October 27 | 1-4pm

Have you heard about the return of the floor cloth trend? Floor cloths (essentially durable, easy-to-clean rugs) are a timeless classic, and now a hot item in the design and home decor world! In this weekend intensive, you will create your own floor cloth, using the vibrant colors and designs of Hunt Slonem’s artwork for inspiration. We will spend some time in his exhibition, create a custom design, and then get to work on a floor cloth you can put anywhere in your home. All materials provided. Floor cloths are limited to 18in x 30in, a standard welcome mat dimension.

NOVEMBER

Intro to Bullet Journaling
Friday, November 1 | 12:15-1:15pm

You may have heard of bullet journaling by now—the daily visually-driven task tracking system that’s taken Pinterest by storm. This interesting approach to organization is based on developing visual keys that make sense to each individual to help keep all your ducks in a beautiful row. All you need is a blank journal—it doesn’t even have to have a printed calendar—and we will teach you the rest. This is a great system for anyone who can’t seem to find the right day planner, or who loves to doodle, or who needs to write things down in order to remember them. You bring the journal and we will provide the washi tape, pens, highlighters, and stickers. No experience necessary; bring your own lunch!

Instructor: Ana Morales

Paint Your Pet: Pop Style
Friday, November 1 | 5:30-8:30pm

Do you have a picture of your pet you’d like to turn into a painting? How about in the Pop art style with bright, punchy colors and bold lines? In this workshop inspired by our POP Power exhibition, you’ll do just that! Send us a photo of your pet, we’ll sketch it on a canvas, and when you get here, we’ll walk you through painting it. You’ll learn how to pick a strategic color scheme as well as some helpful painting tips and tricks. In no time, you’ll turn your favorite photo into a masterpiece even a finicky cat would approve of. Canvas, acrylic paints, and a ticket for one drink from Morning Brew cafe included in your registration. Class space is limited so sign up today!

Please email a clear image of your pet to mfoster@taubmanmuseum.org by October 30 so your canvas may be prepped prior to your arrival.

Instructor: Mariam Foster

Crash Course in Weaving: Weekend Intensive
Saturday, November 2 and Sunday, November 3 | 1-4pm

Have you ever been interested in learning to weave on a loom, but felt intimidated by the supplies and materials? This class is the perfect introduction, where you will be provided with standing loom, yarns/fibers, shuttles, and more. In this two-day crash course, learn the basic weaving techniques that will start your own personal weaving practice! Everyone can expect to leave with one wall hanging completed.

Instructor: Stephanie Fallon
$60, $48 Members

Calligraphy Series: Handlettering Holiday Cards & Envelopes
Saturdays, November 9, 16, and 23 | 10:30am-12:30pm

Get a jumpstart on your holiday cards in this fun series! Take the class as a series to knock out a bigger project or come to individual sessions to focus on building techniques or doing specific cards. Various nibs, penholders, watercolors, and inks will be provided, along with an assortment of stationery.

Instructor: Stephanie Fallon
Series: $75, $60 Members
Per Class: $30, $24 Members

Intro to Paper Cutting
Friday, November 15 | 12:15-1:15pm

Interested in learning the basics of cut paper art? This one-hour class is a teaser for our longer, project-based weekend intensive. You will learn about the materials needed, the steps necessary to get started, the strategy behind creating a single or multiple-layer design, and, ultimately, you will create a small-scale piece of paper cut art! No experience necessary; bring your own lunch!

Instructor: Mariam Foster
$12, $10 Members

---

Fall Flower Centerpieces: Weekend Intensive
Saturday, November 16 and Sunday, November 17 | 1-4pm

Each new season deserves a beautiful new centerpiece! Join us as we create crepe paper flowers in an array of varieties, colors, and sizes. Use your cornucopia of blooms to design an arrangement that will complement your taste, table, and decor perfectly.

Instructor: Alison Lee
$60, $48 Members

---

Cut Paper Art
Saturday, November 16 and Sunday, November 17 | 2-4pm

In this 2-hour workshop, you will learn the basics of cut paper art and how you can use it to create some seriously impressive designs with minimal effort. Your instructor will demonstrate how to use an Xacto knife to strategically cut away the defining lines of a sketch, leaving you with a skeleton of your original design. You will then put it on top of a different colored or textured paper to reveal your cut design. We promise this seemingly complicated art form is really a breeze! From single layers to several, and simplified designs to the more complex, there will be something for everyone. No experience necessary! Want to spend the whole weekend on a more intricate work of art? Consider registering for both sessions!

Instructor: Mariam Foster
Single Session: $25, $20 Members
Both Sessions: $50, $40 Members

Watercolor Workshop
Friday, November 22 | 12:15-1:15pm

Do you love the look of watercolor, but feel intimidated by the medium? Join us for this relaxing, experimental workshop that will teach you the basics of watercolor painting. The techniques and tricks you will learn may be used in many of our longer courses offered by the Museum School, so this is a perfect way to “test the water” before committing to a longer watercolor class. Watercolor artist and instructor Mariam Foster will guide you through the process, whatever your painting goal may be. No experience necessary; bring your own lunch!

DECEMBER

Paint a Still Life: Winter Flower Bouquet
Friday, December 6 | 12:15-1:15pm
You need absolutely no painting experience to enjoy this class. Inspired by our favorite wintry flora and fauna, as well as the unique colors associated with the season, we will create a gorgeous still life featuring a vase of flowers. The canvas will be prepped so that the drawing of the image will be ready for you and then you'll be able to choose your color palette and patterns for the flowers, background, and vase! Instructors will assist with designing your palette and creating your patterns, so you will leave with a beautiful painting that will fit perfectly in your home decor.
Instructor: Mariam Foster

Intro to Bookmaking: Mini Books
Friday, December 13 | 12:15-1:15pm
Still on the hunt for cute stocking stuffers? Why not make them yourself? Not only are these miniature books thoughtful and adorable, they’re also easy to make and can be customized in countless ways! Each participant will leave with three completed miniature books. No experience necessary; bring your own lunch!
Instructor: Ana Morales
$12, $10 Members

DIY Tacky Sweater
Friday, December 20 | 12:15-1:15pm
It’s tacky sweater weather and, let’s be real, the tackier the better! In this class all you’ll need to bring is a sweater you would like to adorn with fun elements like felt, tinsel, beads, and other holiday elements! You will have time to choose your design, discuss your idea with the instructor, and then you will spend the rest of the time decorating your sweater! This is a perfect class for anyone who likes DIY, low-stress projects and is the perfect outing for families and friends to do together. Participants are welcome to bring any extra supplies they would like to use, but a wide variety of tools and design elements will be available.

FAMILIES

The Art of Bookmaking
Saturday, October 12 | 10:30am-12:30pm
Who doesn’t love a good book or journal? What if you knew how to make your own?! In this family-focused class, you’ll learn two different bookmaking methods: the pamphlet stitch and the accordion fold. Participants will leave the class with one of each type of book and have the opportunity to begin decorating and personalizing its pages. This two-hour workshop is the perfect opportunity to learn new skills and to create fun memories with your family! Register as a family with one adult and one child; each additional family member is $5.
Instructor: Alison Lee
$30, $24 Members (includes one adult and one child)
$5 per additional family member

Tiny Houses
Saturday, November 9 | 10:30am-12:30pm
Do you have a love of all things miniature? This 2-hour family-focused class is sure to excite and inspire the young and young at heart by learning how to make even the smallest-scaled buildings into a dream come true. The class will provide all of the materials, suggestions, and inspiration to make your dream tiny home or building a miniature reality. Register as a family with one adult and one child; each additional family member is $5.
Instructor: Alison Lee

TEENS

Teen Art Studio
Every Sunday (October 6 - December 29) | 2-4pm
These 2-hour classes are designed to expand students’ technical skills, build upon their interests, and provide them with new perspectives. Classes will accommodate teens of all skill levels, along with providing a great opportunity for those who are building a portfolio for college or those who simply want to spend time with peers and professional artists in the studio and the galleries. Monthly themes are noted below.
Register for 4 sessions and receive the 5th one free!
Instructor: Nora Bolte
$20, $16 Members

OCTOBER

All About Architecture
This month’s focus will be about everything architecture. In Roanoke, we have such a wonderful display of architecture! In this class, we will learn about different types of architecture, go sightseeing in downtown Roanoke, and even learn about the building process of the Taubman itself! Each student will have a choice of designing their own miniature model or creating a cityscape on canvas.

NOVEMBER

Cartooning and Illustration
This month, we will learn all about the art of cartoons and illustrations! During the first half of the class, students will learn about different styles of illustration and cartooning as well as popular mediums used by professional artists. The second half of the class will be dedicated to developing your own style and creating a special cartoon or illustration using any medium of your choosing.

DECEMBER

Winter Landscapes
Winter is just around the corner, and you know what that means? Beautiful winter landscapes! This class is all about using different techniques to make winter landscapes. We will learn about different styles of landscapes as well as a variety of media. We will even go up to the galleries to study landscape artwork currently in the Museum. The last half of the class will be spent creating a unique winter landscape using materials of your choice.

DID YOU KNOW?
Teens ages 15+ are welcome to participate in any adult class unless otherwise noted.
