GOD IS STILL IN CONTROL

In the End, the Good Guys Win!

By Chaplain R.T. Byrum

The newspapers, internet and airwaves are filled with an unending flood of alarming news of corruption, crime and communism. Sadly, the Heartland Herald often appears to be caught in that same flood in order to keep our readers informed and warned. There is a huge difference, however, in that the editors and staff know the beginning from the end.

In past issues we have shown how it is God who establishes and deposes kings and other rulers. One example is how one son of King David tried to fraudulently seize the throne from Solomon who was ordained by God to rule.

Adonijah promoted and exalted himself as king but God took charge and his attempt to gain power through corruption cost him both the throne and eventually his life.

For the majority of 75-80 million voters for Donald Trump, it was apparent that the election of a non-politician, who knew that America needed a return to founding values, had to be by the hand of a greater power than that of Dominion voting machines.

President Trump's first term accomplishments were addressed in the February midmonth newsletter, but there was still much more to be done. The Socialists of the Democrat Party and their willing allies could not let their Deep State agenda be over turned at any cost.

And so, America is faced with three possibilities that must be played out:

1. Those who have promoted and exalted themselves will remain as punishment on a nation that needs to repent and turn from the wickedness of infanticide, sexual immorality, corruption and murder.

2. God intercedes establish His purposed rule and the Pretender in Chief and his handlers will face human justice now and eternal justice soon.
3. A punishing administration will remain in power and believers will be removed from this world gone mad while the prophesied wrath of God falls upon those “Left Behind.”

If this third scenario seems to be just another religious tale to some, keep in mind that one of the signs of the soon coming tribulation is an increase in the mocking and persecution of believers. The price for banking on the wrong forecast is the difference between eternal life or death.

IT IS NOW JOE BIDEN'S FAULT
Biden's Unseen Consequences of Replacing His 'Scapegoat
 By a Heartland Herald Contributor

Over the past four years the Socialist Left has blamed President Donald Trump for every negative problem whether real or made-up by the party or the media:

- Bad weather: DJT's fault
- 'Hurricane damage: DJT fault

- Climate change: DJT's fault
- No 2nd stimulus check: DJT's fault
- Covid-19: DJT's fault
- Increasing virus deaths: DJT's fault
- Violence in cities: DJT's fault
- Polar bears dying: DJT's fault
- Russian collusion: DJT's fault

Well, Mr. self-anointed President in name only Biden...fingers now point to you as the growing discontent of Americans on both sides of the aisle are waking up to the truth of what life under Socialism aka Communism is all about.

See how Sleepy Joe likes carrying the weight of his actions in the first few weeks:

- Global climate change brings the record of the first recorded snowfall over 75% of nation
- Hundreds of vehicles pile up with more than a dozen deaths and far more injuries
- Stimulus checks now reduced from promised $2000 to $1400 and delayed for another 2 or 3 months
- More tax money to be paid to Planned Parenthood means more murdered babies made in the image of God
- Israel, our best ally in Mideast, is disturbed at Biden's promise to re-new Iran deal.
- Iran stepping up work on weapons grade nuclear program

- VP Harris facing impeachment filing re: ineligibility for office due to her citizenship status
- Vaccine inoculation goal delayed another two months
- Biden Pentagon chief orders first military stand-down in U.S. history to check loyalties to administration
- Border reopening threatens more crime and strain on economy
- Biden closed energy pipelines that were bring down fuel costs and our dependence on hostile nation oil
- More than 13,000 union jobs lost due to pipeline closure
- Biden crime family Pay-to-Play schemes makes U.S. a China Pawn
- Keeping troops at the Capitol is costing taxpayers a reported $4M per day and no end is in sight

ALL THAT IN THE FIRST MONTH!
 Stay tuned as the blame piles up and more proof of fraud in the election is revealed.

Enemies of the Deep State: The Government's War on Domestic Terrorism Is a Trap

By John W. and Nisha Whitehead

“This is an issue that all Democrats, Republicans, independents, Libertarians should be extremely concerned about, especially because we don't have to guess about where this goes or how this ends.

What characteristics are we looking for as we are building this profile of a potential extremist, what are we talking about? What is a religious extremist: legal gun owners, Evangelical Christians, somebody who is pro-life? The proposed legislation could create a very dangerous undermining of our civil liberties, our freedoms in our Constitution, and a targeting of almost half of the country.—Tulsi Gabbard, former Congresswoman

We are moving fast down that slippery slope to an authoritarian society in which the only opinions, ideas and speech expressed are the ones permitted by the government and its corporate cohorts. Watch and see: we are all about to become enemies of the state.

In a déjà vu mirroring of the legislative fall-out from 9/11, and the ensuing build-up of the security state, there is a growing demand in certain sectors for the government to be given expanded powers to root out “domestic” terrorism, the Constitution be damned.

As part of his inaugural address, President Biden pledged to confront and defeat “a rise of political extremism, white supremacy, domestic terrorism.” If this is a test of Joe Biden’s worthiness to head up the American police state, he seems ready.

And then to keep the parallels going, there is the proposed Domestic Terrorism Prevention Act of 2021, introduced after the Jan. 6 riots, which aims to equip the government with “the tools to identify, monitor and thwart” those who could become radicalized to violence.

Don’t blink or you’ll miss the sleight of hand.

As investigative journalist Glenn Greenwald warns:

“The last two weeks have ushered in a wave of new domestic police powers and rhetoric in the name of fighting ‘terrorism’ that are carbon copies of many of the worst excesses of the first War on Terror that began nearly twenty years ago. This New War on Terror—one that is domestic in name from the start and carries the explicit purpose of fighting ‘extremists’ and ‘domestic terrorists’ among American citizens on U.S. soil—presents the whole slew of historically familiar dangers when governments, exploiting media-generated fear and dangers, arm themselves with the power to control information, debate, opinion, activism and protests.”

Greenwald is referring to the USA Patriot Act, passed almost 20 years ago, which paved the way for the eradication of every vital safeguard against government overreach, corruption and abuse.

Free speech, the right to protest, the right to challenge government wrongdoing, due process, a presumption of innocence, the right to self-defense, accountability and transparency in government, privacy, press, sovereignty, assembly, bodily integrity, representative government: all of these and more have become casualties in the government’s war on the American people, a war that has grown more pronounced since Sept. 11, 2001.

This is the power grab hiding in plain sight, obscured by the political machinations of the self-righteous elite. This is how the government continues to exploit crises and use them as opportunities for power grabs under the guise of national security. Indeed, this is exactly how the government added red flag gun laws, pre-crime surveillance, fusion centers, threat assessments, mental health assessments, involuntary confinement to its arsenal of weaponized powers.

The objective is not to make America safe again. That has never been the government’s aim. Their real aim is to criminalize that which should not be criminalized: speech, association, protests, opposition to the new ruling coalition.

The government has been building its pre-crime, surveillance network in concert with fusion centers (of which there are 78 nationwide, with partners in the corporate sector and globally), data collection agencies, behavioral scientists, corporations, social media, and community organizers and by relying on cutting-edge technology for surveillance, facial recognition, predictive policing, biometrics, and behavioral epigenetics (in which life experiences alter one's genetic makeup).

Eventually, all you will really need to do is use certain trigger words, surf the internet, communicate using a cell phone, drive a car, stay at a hotel, purchase materials at a hardware store, take flying or boating lessons, appear suspicious, question government authority, or generally live in the United States.

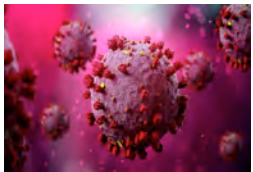

The groundwork has already been laid.

The trap is set. All that is needed is the right bait. If you're not scared yet, you should be. Connect the dots!

CDC caught massively inflating coronavirus cases, deaths in violation of federal law

Thursday, February 18, 2021 by: Ethan Huff

A new study found that the United States Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has been massively inflating Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) cases and the death counts to make the "pandemic" appear far worse than it actually is. Entitled, "COVID-19

Data Collection, Comorbidity & Federal Law: A Historical Retrospective," the paper estimates that the official death numbers for the Chinese virus are at least 1,600 percent too high, which was done on purpose to thwart the outcome of the 2020 election.

Not only that, but the CDC is blatantly violating federal law in the way it collects and reports data about the impact of Chinese germs throughout America. The for-profit corporation is essentially lying to the public as it pushes for even more restrictions, such as double-masking.

"The groundbreaking peer-reviewed research ... asserts that the CDC willfully violated multiple federal laws including the Information Quality Act, Paperwork Reduction Act, and Administrative Procedures Act at minimum," said the watchdog group All Concerned Citizens in a statement to the National File.

"Most notably, the CDC illegally enacted new rules for data collection and reporting exclusively for COVID-19 that resulted in a 1,600% inflation of current COVID-19 fatality totals."

The statement goes on to explain that the CDC failed both to apply for mandatory federal oversight and to open up a mandatory period for public scientific comment, both of which are required under federal law, even during "emergency" situations.

"The research asserts that CDC willfully compromised the accuracy and integrity of all COVID-19 case and fatality data from the onset of this crisis in order to fraudulently inflate case and fatality data," All Concerned Citizens further claims.

On March 24, 2020, the CDC published a document called the "NVSS COVID-19 Alert No. 2," which instructs medical examiners, coroners and physicians to basically categorize every death as a "Covid" death.

Rather than continue, as has long been the norm, to list pre-existing conditions and other underlying causes of death on official death certificates, the CDC scrapped all that once the WuFlu emerged to make every death appear like a "Covid" death.

"This was a major rule change for death certificate reporting from the CDC's 2003 Coroners' Handbook on Death Registration and Fetal Death Reporting and Physicians' Handbook on Medical Certification of Death, which have instructed death reporting professionals nationwide to report underlying conditions in Part I for the previous 17 years," the National File reports.

"This single change resulted in a significant inflation of COVID-19 fatalities by instructing that COVID-19 be listed in Part I of death certificates as a definitive cause of death regardless of confirmatory evidence, rather than listed in Part II as a contributor to death in the presence of pre-existing conditions, as would have been done using the 2003 guidelines."

On April 14, 2020, the CDC further adopted new rules exclusive to Covid-19 that outsourced data collection rule development to the Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists (CSTE), a non-profit organization. This, too, violated federal law in plain sight.

“By enacting these new rules exclusively for COVID-19 in violation of federal law, the research alleges that the CDC significantly inflated data that has been used by elected officials and public health officials, in conjunction with unproven projection models from the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation (IHME), to justify extended closures for schools, places of worship, entertainment, and small businesses leading to unprecedented emotional and economic hardships nationwide,” All Concerned Citizens says.

“A formal petition has been sent to the Department of Justice as well as all US Attorneys seeking an immediate grand jury investigation into these allegations.”

R.I.P. RUSH LIMBAUGH

The Father of Conservative Talk Radio Has Signed Off the Air

Those of us who grew up in the era of AM radio and watched it begin to die as FM and Stereo FM took over the airwaves.

Gone were the mystery and comedy shows. Gone were the big bands of the forties and fifties. Gone were the familiar voices of Walter Winchell and Walter Cronkite. And gone were variety and game shows...replaced with mostly music, commercials and headlines.

Then, the Big Voice on the Right breathed new life into Amplitude Modulation (AM) and over more than three decades, an audience approaching 40 million listeners tuned in for three hours Monday through Friday to hear Rush Limbaugh on his golden EIB microphone.

Then, the expected but dreaded news: Rush Limbaugh, the conservative media icon who for decades used his perch as the king of talk-radio to shape the politics of both the Republican Party and nation, died Wednesday after a battle with cancer. He was 70 years old.

That news was broadcast Wednesday February 17 by his wife Kathryn who said, “As so many of you know, losing a loved one is terribly difficult, even more so when that loved one is larger than life. Rush will forever be the greatest of all time.”

Millions watched, many with tears, as President Donald Trump during his State of the Union address, presented Rush with the highest civilian honor, the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

Love him or hate him, his pronouncements were fact-checked proving him to be over 99% correct. That was his hallmark to not repeat anything that could not be verified by multiple trusted sources.

Although he denied have the power to do so, he was often credited with being a “king-maker” and, perhaps, even a “king-breaker” with his straight talk as a born-again Christian and an unapologetic American patriot.

Those of us who were given the opportunity to express our ideas and emotions over the radio will never forget the man and his legacy. R.I.P. Majah Rushie.

Islam in Our Schools

By David Horowitz

The radical left has ripped God out of our schools...while adding pro-Islamic lessons like the following:

- In a Florida school, students had to design and create Muslim prayer rugs.
- Meanwhile, a Federal Judge prohibited public prayer at a high school graduation ceremony, and even banned the words “prayer” and “amen.”
- In Maryland, students had to write out the Shahada, which states, “There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is the messenger of Allah...”
- In Texas a seventh-grade assignment taught kids that God was a myth and not a fact.

- Countless schools around the country force children to learn and recite the five pillars of Islam.
- In New Jersey the ACLU forced a school to cover up all religious symbols during a graduation ceremony.
- In one school they even recited the Pledge of Allegiance in Arabic ending with, “One nation under Allah”!!

Our children are our future and we cannot allow this satanic cult to indoctrinate them. Volunteer to critique school books, go to school board meetings and talk to any teachers that are involved in these evil practices. We must stop the radical left from brainwashing our children.

Schools, Teaching Cancel Culture

By Kathleen Marquardt

Cancel culture refers to the popular practice of withdrawing support for (canceling) public figures and companies after they have done or said something considered objectionable or offensive: generally discussed as being performed on social media in the form of group shaming.

How in the world did America succumb so quickly to Cultural Marxism and so thoroughly to this evil? The short answer: our children were/are vaccinated against liberty from the day they start kindergarten.

That is a page straight out of communist indoctrination techniques of our children.

Mary Parker Follett, was an early (1918) designer of education. She wrote—“The training for the new democracy must be from the cradle – through nursery, school and play, and on and on through every activity of our life. Citizenship is not to be learned in good government classes or current events courses or lessons in civics. It is to be acquired only through those modes of living and acting which shall teach us how to grow the social consciousness. This should be the object of all day school education, of all night school education, of all our supervised recreation, of all our family life, of our club life, of our civic life.”

Recently, Brock Chisholm, the First Secretary General of World Health Organization (WHO) said this, “To achieve world government, it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, loyalty to family tradition, national patriotism, and religious dogmas.

We have been very slow to rediscover this truth and to recognize the unnecessary and artificially imposed inferiority, guilt and fear, commonly known as sin . . .

which produces so much of the social maladjustment and unhappiness in the world. For many generations we have bowed our necks to the yoke of the conviction of sin. We have swallowed all manner of poisonous certainties fed us by our parents, our Sunday and day school teachers, our politicians, our priests.

“Thou shalt become as gods, knowing good and evil”, good and evil, with which to keep children under control, with which to prevent free thinking, with which to impose local and familial and national loyalties and with which to blind children to their glorious intellectual heritage.”

The cultural Marxists have put enormous amounts of time, money, and effort into molding the American people – as well as much of the rest of the world — into compliant, submissive, spineless, empty-headed beings. Key foundations here in the U.S. took charge of un-educating our children. The Carnegie, Rockefeller, and Ford Foundations were at the start and at the heart of the corruption of our school system

Conclusions from the Reece Committee’s 1954 investigations of tax-exempt foundations using their funds for other than originally intended purposes, i.e., to subvert U.S. education:

Carnegie and Rockefeller Foundations had used their funds for grants with the following agendas in mind:

“Directing education in the United States toward an international viewpoint and discrediting the traditions to which it [formerly] had been dedicated.

Changing both school and college curricula to the point where they sometimes denied the principles underlying the American way of life.

Financing experiments designed to determine the most effective means by which education could be pressed into service of a political nature” (Dodd, 7).

The American Historical Association had issued a report in 1934 “which concluded that the day of the individual in the United States had come to an end and that the future would be characterized, inevitably, by some form of collectivism and an increase in the authority of the State” (Dodd, 10).

The Social Science Research Council and the National Research Council pushed educational curriculum that serves to indoctrinate American students to forego the freedom of the individual and “substitute the group, the will of the majority, and a centralized power to enforce this will – presumably in the interest of all”

Our teacher’s associations and others involved in education have been dumbing down our children for a hundred years. In 1928 at a Progressive Education Association meeting a teacher named O.A. Nelson commented:

The sole work of the group was to destroy our schools! We spent one hour and forty-five minutes discussing the so-called “Modern Math.” At one point I objected because there was too much memory work, and math is reasoning; not memory. Dr. Ziegler turned to me and said, “Nelson, wake up! That is what we want . . . a math that the pupils cannot apply to life situations when they get out of school!” That math was not introduced until much later, as those present thought it was too radical a change. The radical change was introduced in 1952. It was the one we are using now. So, if pupils come out of high school now, not knowing any math, don’t blame them. The results are supposed to be worthless.

The Protestant Ethic will atrophy as more and more enjoy varied leisure and guaranteed sustenance. Work as the means to an end of living will diminish in importance except for a few with exceptional motivation, drive, or aspiration. A dominant elite will provide “bread and circuses” to keep social dissension and disruption at a minimum.

Don’t even say “conspiracy theory” here. This is an official document describing the Behavioral Science Teacher Education Project (BSTEP) Can you say “brainwashing?”

Planning to overturn the values of the Great American Experiment, the writers of this document have conceived a Brave New World that no longer sees values in the works of our Forefathers. They are renouncing the Judeo-Christian/Western Culture values that gave freedom to all who resided here and are inculcating the anti-human, anti-freedom values promoted through so-called social justice and global government.

More recently, now that the goals of BSTEP are at, or next to, completion, social justice issue are being inculcated into our school children’s psyches. Our children are being, literally, brainwashed to accept things that would have been unacceptable to almost every parent even 20 year ago. And it is all to wipe out the student’s moral values and replace them with Cancel Culture vacuity.

Social Justice and multiculturalism are major tools in the Cancel Culture arsenal. In Crimes of the Educators, Samuel Blumenfeld and Alex Newman explain the Common Core standards which . . . “does not call for the Americanization of all these diverse students from different countries and cultures. What it also means is that the traditional Judeo-Christian model of American values is no longer to be upheld as the model for children to adopt in the public schools. No one is required any longer to conform to the once-dominant Judeo-Christian patriotic ideal. That culture is to be virtually erased from the minds of American students.”

This is just an iota of the evils perpetrated on the youth of our nation in the desire to achieve a cancelled culture and, thus, bring us to full cultural Marxism.

How do we stop it? Can we? We certainly best try.

The first step would be to shut down the Department of Education. That would take away the total control of education in this country from the globalists running Washington. Next, we need to take back our schools in our towns and cities. Get rid of those school board members who are working for the globalists, and get parents and community residents who believe in the Great American Experiment.

The schoolbooks need to be burned – all but one of each to remind us never to slip into this evil again. This is probably the hardest part, but we could reprint textbooks from the '50s for a stop-gap measure until we can get new ones with authentic history, true mathematics, and NO sick and twisted sexual education.

In the short/medium run, every parent who can, should home school their children. And in the meantime, as I said before, we need to take back our schools and watch over them like hawks this time. Nothing will be easy, but we allowed this to happen over 100+ years. We cannot expect to fix it in a day. Or month. Or year.

Mediocrity is the New Excellence

Karen Schoen – kbschoen@bellsouth.net

We reported the failure of America's government schools that follow UNESCO's Common Core and is supported by Microsoft. When Common Core was required, parents, teachers, and administrators were warned that our students would be approximately two years behind.

Today with CCP virus, students will be about 3-4 years behind. Mission Accomplished. American Exceptionalism is dead. Mediocre, indoctrinated, woke students afraid of words now rule.

Communists have created their internal army. Mission Accomplished. The American government schools are failing our students. Fifty percent of American graduates cannot read, write and do simple math.

We all know that the only thing that will affect change is a return of the curricula back to traditional education, WHICH WAS A HUGE SUCCESS.

Our government positions are filled by diversity using racial lines not ability; therefore, the high standards and pride in work ethic are no longer important. Due to the extreme push for diversity, important positions are filled following a racial quota, rather than ability, guaranteeing a failure of the program.

Scientists and experts are motivated by grants and money "proving" theories that have no scientific or technical basis. Functionally illiterate people (people taught to be illiterate) are below average, so standard employment requirements are also lowered. Employers are finding workers are not qualified. Workers can't read and follow directions. Too often, ignorant people make costly mistakes which could pose safety hazards or damaged products. Instead of addressing the real issue, poor quality education, employers are forced to lower standards to meet racial quotas often imposed by government through grants, subsidies or directives. Too often lowered standards pose a danger to the people they serve.

Trump turned it around and excellence with America First was just beginning to take hold. Communists hate excellence because it brings opposition.

No fear Joe is here. He will fix and segregate the government again under the banner of equity by his Biden's Executive Order on Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities through the Federal Government.

Joe has turned the clock back to when the government under the original order of Woodrow Wilson, was segregated. Joe managed to cancel MLK JR, by putting the 1963 Civil Rights Act in the trash.

Now the left can focus on trashing all those "white" Americans, while teaching our kids hatred not reading writing and math. Why teach at all? Better to train new activists to destroy the country. Will your grandkids or kids turn you in?

Biden is more interested in color and race than exceptionalism. After all communists believe educated people require more of their government so their vow is to keep the people stupid. Ignorant people can easily be diverted to activism since they have no skills and must fill a void to feel useful. Schools are perfect places to create these "useful idiots".

Check out three of the 45 Goals of Communism read into the Congressional Record in 1963:

#17. Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism and current Communist propaganda. Soften the curriculum. Get control of teachers' associations. Put the party line in textbooks.

#18. Gain control of all student newspapers.

#19. Use student riots to foment public protests against programs or organizations which are under Communist attack.

According to the CDC, American suicide is up and higher due to CCP Virus. Instead of asking why more meds are given to depressed people—often causing more depression, while root causes are ignored.

Depression has multiple causes. Some are:

- an individual forced into a controlled environment
- not being able to express themselves as individuals
- anti-depressants
- ignoring natural psychological and physical needs

- not belonging
- loneliness (devices replacing friends)
- lack of responsibility
- lack of morality
- life without meaning or purpose
- lack of common sense
- inability to logically draw conclusions in problem solving
- inability to reason (thus drawing wrong solutions)
- frustration having no future or destiny.

All of these are key triggers often leading to anxiety and depression. Depression can lead to violence and or suicide. Sadly key skills have been eliminated from schools giving student nothing meaningful to look forward too. Schools now teach our children to hate their country family and God, forcing students through communist propaganda of what to think, not how to think.

Common Core forces a child to think in a box with little hope for a future not in line with the predetermined government goal.

Common Core is based on the premise that people are stupid and the "smart academics know best". If a child makes a different response not their desired response, often a child will be bullied by other students or teacher. A child might act out just to make their ideas known. Then too often students feeling worthless turn to drugs, massive piercing, tattooing, drinking, cutting, murder, terrorism, or suicide. Hopelessness is the dominant emotion.

Common Core manipulates emotion and eliminates individualism, forcing a child into groupthink, not innovation and creation. Emotion becomes dominant with no logical reason to balance. A person can only think of one thought at a time. By forcing overuse of right brain function (emotion) the left brain (logic and reason) become dormant from lack of use. Today, aside from being functionally illiterate, too many people are motivated by trigger words that unleashes unbridled emotion too often resulting in violence or suicide.

Not to worry. Common Core will be gone. That is the name Common Core not the ideas. We must be vigilant and learn the names of the new programs saying the same things like BLM or 1619 Project.

We ignore the facts and continue to push this horrid programs filled with errors, omissions and bias. Have we learned nothing from years of failing grades? Not to worry, more money will "fix" the problem. No, "It's the curricula stupid."

Why are we forcing America's children to follow a failed program? Education based on collectivism not individualism, training not education and values not facts. How many more generations of Americans will we lose to this indoctrination called education? So far we have lost 4 generations.

According to Biden, all K-12 and colleges are now forced to select students on the basis of Diversity. This does not produce the best and brightest. By ignoring the SCIENTIFIC METHOD of reasoning out problems is escalating as students study irrelevant subjects like diversity, race and minority affects on a variety of issues NOT SCIENCE.

Since Common Core was thrown at us without proper vetting (no test run) and violates many educational codes and statutes, why not have at least one school in each district teach traditional education? Several states are finally beginning to recognize the harm that training, not educating, has brought. Florida and Texas, are taking the lead.

If nothing is done, how many more agencies and businesses will fail putting the public at risk? Do we now get to choose our doctor, mechanic, air traffic controller, police based on color of skin or ability to do the job? The choice is ours.
