

AMERICA UNDER ATTACK!

By Dale Pflug, Publisher

America is at war! It is a different kind of war that you might not have noticed if you weren't paying attention. I was going to say there are no bombed out buildings, no bullet holes in the walls and windows, no raging fires or dead bodies lying in the streets. But if you are in the right location, these happen more every day, the evidence is there, you just haven't acknowledged it.

It's not just one war, but many going on all around us. Have you examined what's going on in your federal, state and even local government(s)? Let's start with our elections.

There are wars going on with powerful enemies that hate you, hate America and hate our Constitution. These enemies have convinced us to ignore many of the limitations and protections of the Constitution, ignoring the rule of law during the 2020 elections. Great corruptions and betrayals were systematically ignored by our Courts and Congress.

A war is raging in our school districts over wild schemes such as Critical Race Theory, Black Lives Matter and LGBTQ are being promoted in schools that are rapidly driving us toward socialism, Marxism and Communism. Our children are not being taught true American history or the meaning of, and genius in our U.S. Constitution. Parents have very little to say, and many aren't even aware of the schemes that have caused many children to believe the Constitution is obsolete and should be replaced, as should our republican form of government.

In health care, a war rages over the right of government to demand every citizen, regardless of age, be vaccinated. And this is happening even as thousands of cases emerge of vaccinated people testing positive for the COVID-19 Virus.

Few Americans are aware that many elected officials and radical bureaucrats inside of government are bribed by hostile foreign governments and joined by big Pharma and other organizations scheming to eliminate our God given rights protected by the Constitution.

There are many wars but consider one of the most sinister; the onslaught of illegal aliens rushing across our southern border. Our southern border has ceased to exist - upwards of 15,000 Haitians are camping on the Texas border supported by the radical-left enemies, bent on destroying our economy and our society. And there is little if any recognition or resistance of these offenses from our federal court system or our elected representatives in Washington, DC. Without secure borders, how long can we survive as a sovereign nation?

Dare we even mention the war going on in our armed forces over the conduct of foreign wars or the humiliation of our nation during withdrawal from Afghanistan. Do you see the spiritual battles being waged in our communities and churches over good and evil targeting the very core of our society?

We have enemies seeking America's complete destruction. There is a multi-faceted war from the Chinese Communist Party (CCP) against our people and nation. Radical left groups combined with the liberal media, liberal political parties, and colleges and universities are among our most aggressive foes as they seek to undermine our republican form of government and purge our most basic values found in the Bible and the Constitution.

If we didn't know the history of our country and the strength of our American Creed, we would despair about the unconventional and unrestricted aggressions we face from both foreign and domestic foes. Our forefathers fought against overwhelming odds to defeat tyranny and establish this great Republic.

Without God's help, we believe they would have not prevailed. But early praying champions of freedom came to these shores, claimed this country for God, and dedicated it to the spreading of the gospel. God loves justice and God loves liberty (Ps.11:7).

We here at the HH, believe with many others that God is not finished with America. So, what do we do about the warfare and the enemies that threaten and surround us?

Armed with the truth, humility, and a sober assessment of our present situation, we appeal to the God who answered our forefather's prayers and choose to take a stand against tyranny in any form just as other generations have had to do. Armed with proclaimed truth, divine providence, the commitment to stand and the will and courage to fight, we're asking Him to help us again today.

Will you stand up and fight for your homeland? Determine to embrace what you know is 'right and true' and defend it. Remember what God has done for us in the past and be a standard bearer of hope and faith for the future of our land. Join those who are fighting back.

Shake off the dust of our past and recent failures, the clamor of those who want to divide us, and the discouragement and embarrassment for our present leadership and reclaim our rightful inheritance as Americans. Our kids deserve the America that the Greatest Generation of WWII and fighting men of every generation fought to defend. Our beloved veterans deserve (and they need to see) a just victory over America's enemies. Fight as hard as our noble military men and women have always fought in foreign lands. Fight for what is right for a strong America today. We can and will do this because -

IN GOD WE TRUST.

The Destructive Goal of the Left

By Chaplain R.T. Byrum

I have spent much time trying to determine what causes a natural-born American to change into a liberal leftist. Having been born into the miracle of arguably the most blessed nation in history, why would a sane person seek to destroy it? Although the socialist/progressive title hangs most heavily about the liberal neck, there are pretend conservatives who also share the same distorted goal.

When the Constitutional Congress met in 1787 to create a nation unlike any in history, they used a yardstick to create a balanced form of government. At the far left of the stick, labeled "Ruler's Law" was the term "Tyranny." At the center was the label, "People's Law." The far-right label was "No Law" and the descriptive term, "Anarchy."

The Founding Fathers freed themselves from the tyrannical king of England, but also realized that having no rule of law would lead to an anarchistic and non-accountable society. So, their focus was on a balanced government that was to be Of, By and For the People. The result was a nation that millions risk all to become a part of, and few, if any, seriously want to leave.

What a contrast with countries ruled by communists and socialists! Without exception, citizens under those evil systems are stripped of liberty and happiness, and even their lives. Yet, in America, misguided, miserable, malcontents, privileged to be raised under the stars and stripes, veer toward an all-powerful government on the left, or mob rule on the right.

Why does this happen? One can list many reasons but let me reference the warnings given by the God-fearing men who risked their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honors to give us America. Listen to their voices as they convict us of squandering what they and countless others bestowed on us with their blood, sweat and tears.

Ben Franklin: "I am apprehensive...that the government of these States may, in future times, end in a monarchy. But this catastrophe...may be long delayed if we do not sow the seeds of contention, faction, and tumult, by making our posts of honor places of profit." (GREED-obscene pensions, speaking fees, accepting bribery for favors)

Referring to certain men who favored a monarchy (all powerful government), Thomas Jefferson said, "These men have no right to office. If a monarchist be in office, anywhere, and it be known to the President, the oath he has taken to support the Constitution imperiously requires the instantaneous dismissing of such officer; and I hold the President criminal if he permitted such to remain." (POWER-controlling votes to maintain supremacy for one's agenda)

Samuel Adams: "The Utopian schemes of leveling (redistribution of wealth) and a community of goods (central ownership of production and distribution) are as visionary and impractical as those which vest all property to the crown." (BIG GOVERNMENT leading to One World Order)

Once we had allowed God to be removed from public places; the courts to legislate rather than interpret law; the Constitution to be considered obsolete; government to dictate education, and villages to replace parents in fostering our children, we opened the sheepfold to let in wolves.

The true patriot's ammunition is not lethal bullets, but legal ballots. In all upcoming elections, we must put on our full armor of faith and fight as if our freedom depends on it...Because It Does!!

Spike in Sex Offenders Entering U.S. Illegally after Biden Kills Deportation Program

www.judicialwatch.com

Months after the Biden administration canceled a program that deported illegal immigrants convicted of sex crimes, the Border Patrol reports a stunning 3,166% increase in sex offenders crossing into the United States illegally via Mexico. Known as Operation Talon, the initiative was launched in the final weeks of the Trump administration and was run by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Around a month after Biden took office, Operation Talon was canceled, igniting outrage among law enforcement and elected officials around the country. Bad move by the incoming administration, considering that between October 2014 and May 2018, ICE arrested nearly 20,000 illegal immigrants previously convicted of sex-related offenses, including child molestation, rape, sexual assault and human trafficking, according to data collected by Syracuse University's Transactional Records Access Clearinghouse (TRAC).

More than a dozen state attorneys general blasted the administration for killing Operation Talon and warned the president in a letter of the repercussions. They specifically mentioned that it could encourage sexual predators seeking to enter the United States illegally.

"The cancellation of this program effectively broadcasts to the world that the United States is now a sanctuary jurisdiction for sexual predators," the attorneys general write.

This message creates a perverse incentive for foreign sexual predators to seek to enter the United States illegally and assault more victims, both in the process of unlawful migration and after they arrive. It will also broadcast the message to other criminal aliens who have committed other offenses that any kind of robust enforcement against them is unlikely. The signatories of the letter include the attorneys general of Florida, Alabama, Texas, Utah, West Virginia, Georgia, Louisiana and Kentucky, among others.

The chief legal officers proceed to ask: "If the United States will not remove even convicted sex offenders, whom will it remove?" The warning about more sex offenders entering the United States illegally has evidently materialized.

During a recent one-week period, Border Patrol agents in the Del Rio Sector in Texas arrested 10 convicted sex offenders shortly after they crossed into the country illegally. In a statement, the frontline Homeland Security agency discloses that between May 17 and 23, agents arrested two Mexican nationals with felony convictions including forcible sexual abuse, sexual assault of a child under 14, sexual assault of a child, sexual assault, sexual conduct with a person under 13 and a registered sexual offender.

Agents also arrested two Honduran nationals with felony convictions for statutory rape and second-degree sexual assault of a child. May 24, Mexican nationals with prior convictions were arrested. Record checks revealed one individual had a felony conviction for lewd and lascivious molestation. The second had a felony conviction for lewd and lascivious acts with a child.

This fiscal year, which began on October 1, the Del Rio Sector has arrested 95 convicted sex offenders, shattering a Border Patrol record, which amounts to a 3,166 % increase over the same time frame last fiscal year. That is astounding as the Mexican border crisis worsens and frontline agents are increasingly overwhelmed with the onslaught.

"If you are in this country illegally and have a history of sex convictions, you should be a high priority for our law enforcement agencies," writes a Florida congressman in a letter to Secretary of Homeland Security Alejandro Mayorkas shortly after Operation Talon got nixed.

"Tragically, human trafficking cases have more than doubled in the last four years alone while other sex-related crimes have also increased," Congressman Vern Buchanan, who serves on the powerful House Ways and Means Committee, writes. "My home state of Florida has the third highest number of human trafficking cases of any state. Abruptly scrapping this important federal operation exposes countless potential victims to these dangerous predators."

Buy American - It's a Big Step on the Path to Restoration

By Barry Foster and John Larsen

Buy American! We all have heard the call - but does it really matter? As talk radio's John Larsen points out - if the 80 million Trump voters just spent one dollar a day on American goods versus Chinese goods - that would be an $80 million shift. And that would be just for one day. Can you imagine what would happen if we made that part of our regular buying pattern?

It does involve a bit of work at first, and a bit of understanding.

"There is a big difference between made in America, assembled in America and designed in America," said madeinamerica.com CEO Don Buckner.

The "Made in USA" label requires that a product manufactured in the U.S. have more than 50 percent U.S. parts to be considered Made in USA for government procurement purposes. (For more information, review the Buy American Act at 41 U.S.C. §§ 10a-10c). Some labels may indicate products were made in the USA - but with more than half the parts coming from outside our borders.

That's why www.madeinusa.com is compiling a list of products manufactured here, and sources their parts from other USA manufacturers.

Moreover, some American brands have been purchased by the Chinese. You'd think companies like Taco Bell, Burger King and Kentucky Fried Chicken were American - but actually they're owned by the Chinese. That goes for Smithfield, the appliance division of General Electric, AMC theaters, and IBM personal computer division among others.

It seems like work, but the stakes are great. Over the past few decades, American companies have been moving offshore to get better prices. Now, it is difficult and even impossible to find some goods that are made here at all. That means fewer jobs, less quality control and yes - higher prices.

But the good news is, as the demand for American-made products increases, prices will come down. Better yet, our tepid economy can begin to thrive the way it did a few years ago.

Buying American will have ever-increasing benefits as time goes by. It not only will keep jobs in America but help build jobs for future generations. These jobs come at a fair wage, and many with benefits and even sign-on bonuses.

By purchasing American-made goods, it will lessen our dependence on other countries which may or may not remain friendly.

For the most part, we can rely on American-made goods to be of higher quality. Companies here are held to higher environmental standards as well as safety in their working conditions.

The most important part of buying American is preserving our freedom. A huge US trade deficit leads to unsustainable borrowing. When we buy American, we help to provide jobs, reduce the trade deficit and build the economy. There's never been a better time to look for the American flag on our products and the words "Made in USA".

Remember This Quote

"It is of great importance to set a resolution, not to be shaken, never to tell an untruth. There is no vice so mean, so pitiful, so contemptible; as he who permits himself to tell a lie once, finds it much easier to do it a second and a third time, till at length it becomes habitual." —Thomas Jefferson (1785)

Beasts and Zombies

By Karen Kataline

"Our patience is wearing thin."

Those words were uttered to Americans by a President of the United States who also referred to nuclear weapons as a means of putting down citizens who still believe in the 2nd Amendment. "Our patience is wearing thin." also means that since you are refusing to do what we say, we will now start forcing you to do what we say. None of this should be a surprise at this point but to some, it still is.

The message is as clear as our marred but still beautiful Liberty bell: We were only pretending that you had a right to say no. We wanted you to think that we still believe there are limits to our power and that we must use persuasion (or bribery) to get you to do whatever we want, but that was just until we "ran out of patience."

And for what? For a flawed, obviously false claim that a vaccine is safe or remotely necessary: that it would protect people from a 98.86% non-lethal threat and from those horribly selfish, Refuseniks who haven't complied "yet," it would allow those who complied to "return to "normal," and they would be done with the masks, the shots and the dictates.

Over half the country knows now, that none of it was ever true. They also know that those "calling the shots" (and the boosters too) don't care what we know or what we think. They care only that we obey, -and we'd better not forget that this is all because they "care" about us and it's "for our own good."

The zombies who have already complied, taken the jab or have continued to wear their masks are being given the green light to fear, hate, scapegoat, and openly persecute the non-zombies in their midst because well, they have continued to comply with everything else. Why not that?

If those zombies don't comply with this new, socially sanctioned brand of hatred and persecution, they will eventually be persecuted too. From the moment we saw the mask mandates, we knew vax mandates would be right around the corner. Something else is coming. Regardless of whether people knew it or not, we were put on notice of that a long time ago.

If I were a Christian, I'd think these heinous injections and medical experiments were the "mark of the beast." In my cursory reading, there are apparently as many interpretations of this as there are Christian denominations, but the message is relatively similar. Those who have ceased to answer to God and have anointed government and other men as God must be forced to show their submission.

Among my mottos for some time has been: God gave us free will. We should never expect less from our government.

By the way, if you celebrate that sort of thing, Happy Jewish New Year.

1776 Commission Continues in Spite of Biden

By Larry Arnn, Pres. of Hillsdale College

On September 17, 2020, Constitution Day, Larry Arnn, President of Hillsdale College chaired a panel organized by the White House. The panel's purpose was to identify what has gone wrong in the teaching of American history and to lay forth a plan for recovering the truth. It took place in the National Archives with the panel sitting in front of the originals of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

When the panel's work was finished, President Trump joined them and gave a speech about the beauty of the American founding and the importance of teaching American History for the preservation of freedom.

The President's speech reminded Arnn of an essay by Professor Harry Jaffa "On the Necessity of a Scholarship of the Politics of Freedom." Its point was that a certain kind of scholarship is needed to support the principles of a nation such as ours.

America is the most deliberate nation in history - it was built for reasons that are stated in the in the legal documents that form its founding. The reasons are given in abstract and universal forms and without good scholarship, they can be turned astray.

The panel was part of an initiative of President Trump to counter the New York Times 1619 Project. The 1619 Project promotes the teaching that slavery, not freedom, is the defining fact of American history. President Trump's 1776 Commission's aim was to restore truth and honesty to the teaching of American history.

"It is an initiative we must work tirelessly to carry on regardless of whether we have a president in the White House who is on our side in this fight or not." said Arnn. We must carry on the fight because our country is at stake. Indeed, in a larger sense, civilization is at stake, because the forces arrayed against the scholarship and politics of freedom today have more radical aims than just destroying America. They support setting up a totalitarian government to replace the promised republican government in America.

On Jan.18, 2021, the 1776 Commission issued the 1776 Report that calls for a return to the unifying principles of our founding documents. It also calls for a civics education that fosters reverence for the principles, beginning with accurate and honest teaching of our history.

On January 20, Joe Biden abolished the 1776 Commission with one of his first executive orders. On the same day, the White House deleted the 1776 Report from its website. But you'll be pleased to know that the work of 1776 Commission has not ended. Hillsdale has provided, the report available for free to the public. And in May the 1776 Commission met at Hillsdale College's Washington DC campus to continue its work and to discuss civics curricula and state civics education reform efforts, pending future federal legislation or executive orders.

"This curriculum is the work of educators", said Arnn, and "This curriculum is the work of education." Arnn continued by saying, "These controversies about history can only be resolved by looking at the facts. To help the young to know about this history is the work of the 1776 Commission, and its importance has not diminished since inauguration day."

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

A Heartland Herald Editorial

After Author Lewis Carroll's book Through the Looking-Glass, was published in 1871, looking glass came to mean "the opposite of what is normal or expected."

In a recent local Sunday newspaper, there appeared several letters that perfectly describe viewing the real world through a looking glass (mirror): Left is right, up is down, true is false, false is true, good is evil and evil is good. The text of those letters saddened those of us who carefully pay attention to what is really happening as opposed to what the leftist media claims is taking place.

One letter writer, explaining her voting for Biden, defended her choice for Joe because of "his love for democracy" and how "he would fight to protect it." She wanted someone "who believes in our Constitution and the rule of law." She said she voted for Biden because he would "choose competent experienced people who would work to make our country better."

Somehow the writer missed reports of Biden's son admitting to paying his dad a share of the shady money from the questionable Ukrainian gas deal. Perhaps the lifting of sanctions and the payoff of bales of cash to Iran's terrorist régime slipped past her reading. His standing in the way of assuring honest Constitutional elections apparently went unnoticed.

Everyday seems to expose yet another "competent" member of the administration that has worked against making the country better. That includes Joe defending General Mark Milley, who, according to new disclosures; assured a Chinese general that he, Milley, would reveal any of then President Trump's plans of action against China. In a real world, that is giving aid and comfort to an enemy defined as treason.

Her description of Biden's empathy for people and his Christian faith overlooked Joe's attempt to recite the Declaration of Independence: "We hold these truths to be self-evident," the former vice president said during a campaign event in Texas. "All men and women are created by — you know, you know, the thing." Actually Mr. Biden, most of us know the thing as GOD.

Another letter described non-liberals as, "masters of propaganda who are more concerned with demonizing the CDC and health care professionals over their pleas to exercise sensible precautions." The writer missed the point that free citizens refuse non-constitutional mandates, not sensible precautions.

But then the text continues by accusing those who reject Big Brother domination as "artful dodgers who deflect from this 'deadly crisis' to focus on the 'tiresome' Afghanistan debacle (13 soldiers killed, and American citizens left behind as hostages to Taliban terrorists, and billions in cash and military equipment abandoned, and Afghanistan allies abandoned to torture and death). The writer goes on to decry such protests as defending efforts by the state of Texas to curtail women's reproductive rights (actually efforts by Texas to reduce the millions of innocent babies killed by surgical infanticide.)

One more example from a third letter to the editor, revealed the mirrored bias of the author concerning the former (and most probably still) President Donald Trump and those of us who supported him. He wrote: "The cult members of his party continue to kiss the ring and spread the big lie of losing an election.

The continued chaos in this country is because of the constant raving and ranting about a 'legal election.'" (Release the audits and prove whether or not it was legal.)

Such acts, he declares, keeps the cult members up in arms with protests and violence.

(Apparently, he mistakes videos of BLM and Antifa rioting for thousands of conservatives at peaceful rallies.)

In the reversed world, in the mirror world, socialists frantically create distractions to prevent the lesser informed masses from remembering President Trump's great achievements:

Broadening the nationalist movement: Geographically, Trump gained vote share in each of America's four largest cities in 2020 vs. 2016. He added 500,000 new votes in Los Angeles County alone. Among the 11 million new voters rallying to Trump's candidacy were millions of Latinos.

Abraham accords: For the first time in a quarter-century, Arab nations agreed to normalized relations with Israel. Trump harnessed diplomacy combined with toughness toward Iran to forge truly historic new ties in the region. The 2020 agreement among Israel, the United Arab Emirates and Bahrain represents a massive breakthrough, one that encouraged similar pacts with Morocco and Sudan.

Economic recovery: The rally from the spring lockdown lows defied all predictions, and included massive surges in home and automobile sales, as pickup truck purchases soared to all-time highs. The U.S. economic performance was the envy of the advanced world. The U.S. stock market roared back far higher than the indices of Japan, Germany, and the United Kingdom.

The wall: Contrary to the media narrative, considerable progress has been made in building the president's controversial border barrier, despite constant obstructionism from both Congress and the courts – and the unrelenting hostility of the press. Some 423 miles of impressive border wall now stands guard at our southern border.

Trade agreements: For decades, our government pursued disastrous trade deals at the behest of K Street lobbyists, benefiting foreign nations plus the top executives of American multinationals, regardless of the harm to American workers. Trump won the presidency vowing to fix these untenable trade structures, and in 2020 he signed the USMCA pact with our neighbors Mexico and Canada, a material improvement over the outdated and unfair NAFTA championed by bipartisan globalists.

Striking down terrorists: Instead of wasteful and unsuccessful mass invasions or grandiose commitments to “nation-building,” this president used surgical strikes to eradicate threats to our security. After America's successful hit against ISIS leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi in 2019, the 2020 strike against ISIS leader Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi in 2019, the 2020 Strike against Iranian military leader and terrorism exporter Qasem Soleimani eliminated perhaps the most dangerous terrorist in the Middle East.

Space force: The first new branch of the U.S. military in decades, Trump showcased his vision as an unpredictable political leader in establishing Space Force as the sixth U.S. military branch as part of the 2020 National Defense Authorization Act.

Waiting in the wings is a figure now seen through the glass darkly, who is delighted with every attack on Christian, Conservative and Constitutional values. When his time comes, he will arrive on the scene and those who are blinded to reality will understand why the rest of us cling to our God, rather than “You know, the thing.”

“It's Not About Where the Virus Escaped from, but about Where It Was Developed”

By Clare Lopez

A July 20, 2021 Press Release from Congressman Mo Brooks (R-AL) deserves both attention and credit. At his website, he reported on a meeting he'd attended with Dr. Li-Meng Yan, a medical doctor, Ph.D. virologist, and whistleblower. At the meeting, Dr. Yan provided insider information about the origins of the SARS-CoV-2 (aka the 'coronavirus'). Dr. Yan fled Hong Kong in 2020, defecting from China to warn America and the world about the CCP's (Chinese Communist Party) offensive, unrestricted biowarfare program.

As Representative Brooks noted, the evidence is overwhelming that the Communist Party negligently, recklessly or intentionally released covid-19 on the world. Dr. Li-Meng Yan bravely defected from China to America after discovering the communist Chinese party's destructive and evil Wuhan bio-weapons program which violates the Biological Weapons Convention to which China remains a signatory — as well as the Q25 Geneva Protocol. The weaponization of viruses is included under the designation of bioweapon.

In a 6-page report Dr. Yan details specifics of the CCP's comprehensive unrestricted bio-weapons program of the Chinese military, in which Chinese PLA (People's Liberation Army) scientists and other officials suggest that World War III would be fought with biological weapons.

Specifically, in a document written by Chinese scientists and public health officials it openly discussed the weaponization of the SARS coronavirus titled, “The Unnatural Origin of SARS and New Species of Man-Made Viruses as Genetic Bioweapons” The document described the SARS coronavirus as among a new era of genetic weapons that can be “artificially manipulated into an emerging human disease virus, then weaponized and unleashed in a way never seen before.”

Then there is the full text of the 2003 “Secret Speech of General Chi Haotian,” who was the CCP Minister of National Defense from 1993-2003. General Haotian spoke in blatantly racist terms of Han Chinese “national superiority, atheism and covetous “overseas” geographical expansionism in the name of “living space.” He stated that “only countries like the United States, Canada and Australia have the vast land to serve our need for mass colonization” — adding that “We the descendants of the Chinese nation are entitled to the possession of the land!”

He went on to describe biological warfare, “new bio-weapons” and a “surprise attack” as the special means “by which to clean up America”, so that the killing of “one or two hundred million Americans” would make room for Chinese people to move in without despoiling the land (as nuclear weapons would).

In fact, Gen. Haotian's speech merely echoes and amplifies the 1999 publication of “Unrestricted Warfare: China's Master Plan to Destroy America” by two Chinese Colonels in the People's Liberation Army (PLA), the Chinese military. In those pages, the PLA lists multiple arenas of warfare the CCP regime considers legitimate, including “Biochemical Warfare.”

As the world continues to grapple with a rapidly mutating SARS-CoV-2, questions are finally being asked about where that virus came from and how it got out to devastate the entire world. But the real questions that must be asked to get to the heart of Dr. Yan's reporting: and those, as Rep. Brooks also tells us, involve the CCP-PLA's extensive offensive biological weapons program.

As Di. Yan has explained, there is credible evidence that the COVID-19 virus displays features characteristic of gain-of-function-work commonly utilized throughout China. In the simplest terms, this coronavirus' extraordinary ability to bind to human lungs most suited and most vulnerable to the SARS-CoV-2 seems to point directly at laboratory genetic manipulation designed intentionally to enhance this coronavirus' infectiousness for human beings.

Dr. Yan's medical credentials are notable: she holds medical degrees and a Ph.D. from multiple top medical universities in mainland China, including the Xiangya Medical College of Central South University in Changsha and the Southern Medical University in Guangzhou.

In 2014, she joined the WHO H-5 reference lab at the U. of Hong Kong, then led by Dr. Malik Peiris, a Sri Lankan national with close ties to the entire CCP-PLA apparatus as well as the international research community, including Dr. Anthony Fauci, Director of the U.S. National Institute of Health (NIH) National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID).

By 2019, Dr. Yan was asked to investigate the origins of the new virus then beginning to spread across Wuhan, the capital of Hubei Province in central mainland China. Once she realized the menace of that BW program and the likely origins within it of what became known as SARS-CoV-2 and its ramifications for the rest of the world. Dr. Yan began to raise the alarm to her supervisor. This inevitably flagged her to the CCP authorities and resulted in warnings that she could be “disappeared” if she did not stop speaking of such things. By April 2020, Dr. Yan knew she had to flee Hong Kong and came to the U.S., where she now resides pending an asylum claim.

We owe a debt of gratitude to Dr. Li-Meng Yan, as well as to Congressman Mo Brooks, for their courage in alerting the U.S. and indeed, the rest of the world, to the growing threat of China's dangerous and unrestricted BW program.

Meditation on Psalms 11

In the Lord I put my trust: How can you say to my soul, “Flee as a bird to your mountain”?

For Look! The wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow on the string, that they may shoot secretly at the upright in heart.

If the foundations are destroyed, What can the righteous do?

The Lord is in His holy temple, the Lord's throne is in heaven,

His eyes behold, His eyelids test the sons of men.

The Lord tests the righteous, But the wicked and the one who loves violence His soul hates.

Upon the wicked He will rain coals: Fire and brimstone and a burning wind Shall be the portion of their cup.

For the lord is righteous,

He loves righteousness;

His countenance beholds the upright.

My body, their choice, unless it's about abortion.

By Karen Kataline

The Heartbeat law went into effect in the state of Texas on September 1st. What a travesty! Abortion is illegal if a baby's heartbeat can be detected. Yes, what a travesty and it has driven leftists and pro-abortion activists to distraction. This sign is older, but pictures abound with women holding up signs about their freedom with masks on their faces. Do they have any clue how absurd they are? (Notice the angry woman with the baby in her arms.)

Look at that sign!! And she can hold up that sign with a straight face! (At least you can see their faces.)

The Left is furious over abortion restrictions but is ho hum about Americans left to die or be tortured or killed in Afghanistan.

Remember that old phrase, "Talk is cheap"? It is patently clear that wherever Leftist's "rule" life is even cheaper.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

How Low Can America Go?

If you are not among those who have been brainwashed by the Leftist Socialist Democrat ideology, then the daily dump of swamp waste on America stinks to highest heaven. If the odor were not bad enough, the corrosion it is causing to the pillars of our nation is a harbinger for destruction.

How tragic is the diminishing number of moral men and women like those who founded and built up this nation under God? Perhaps we have finally reached the bottom of the barrel when Joe Biden is CEO of America Inc. by the fraudulent 2020 election. This president received four Pinocchio's from the Washington Post for false claims in his long delayed public address.

From a Constitutional viewpoint, VP Kamala Harris might arguably be able to legally assume the post should Biden be replaced, but then, by the same token, so could any other "anchor baby" who remains in the U.S. and surpasses 35 years of age (think about that!)

More disturbing is her communistic agenda of eliminating the entire fossil fuel industry, the private healthcare industry and the private ownership of guns (goodbye 2nd Amendment.) No surprise since her mother was reportedly an Antifa-like protester in 1964, and her father, who retired on an American taxpayer funded pension, remained a non-citizen still loyal to the government of Jamaica.

It is not necessary to rehash the peccadilloes of Bill Clinton, the dishonesty and broken promises of Obama or "let them eat cake" Pelosi or the insanity that flows like a sewer from the current crop of leftists. Weak and complicit RINO Senate and House members won't stand up to their dangerous and destructive agendas. How could we have let this happen?

That was then—the following is now! What happens next?

Brock Chisholm, former Director-General of United Nation's World Health Organization (WHO) said, "To achieve a world government (NWO), it is necessary to remove from the minds of men their individualism, their loyalty to their families, national patriotism, and religion."

Our first President, George Washington, predicted this unhappy state of affairs when he said, "It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible. Do not ever let anyone claim to be a true American patriot if they ever attempt to separate religion from politics."

As Congress yields its constitutional powers to the Executive and Judicial branches of government, and the states yield their greater power to the federal government, and we as American citizens yield our ultimate power to all the above, it should not come as a surprise that China, Russia, and the Mid-Eastern Bloc countries are licking their chops as a weakened super-power bares its throat to the teeth of our enemies.

Does this mean that America is finished? Are we destined to become another communist failure? Will the new normal be permanent masking, implanted ID chips, standing in line for toilet paper and food, no travel without permission from big brother and worshipping only in secret?

There is a possible answer:

Patriots must rise and fight back against swamp creatures through a barrage of phone calls, postcards, peaceful protests and by being an army dedicated to demanding honest elections. If you are able, run for a local office and work up through the system for reform. Let your pastor know that the church has a responsibility to educate the membership in supporting men and women of Godly ideas and character. Pray for the hand of God to intervene and restore the nation blessed by Him from the founding.

There may also be another answer:

Daniel 2:21 says, "...He (God) removes kings and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding." Sometimes rulers are given to bless or even restore a nation that strives for morality and obedience. Sadly, a nation that kills its unborn, teaches immoral sexuality to its youth, mocks the Creator God and His faithful and destroys the boundaries of sovereignty may be temporarily placed under the yoke of tyrannical leaders.

Still, there are positive signs appearing that will be a permanent part of Heartland Herald content and it is in the best interest for you and others that you persuade, to subscribe for every issue.

In the meantime, as Christians we understand the meaning of Luke 21:28 that says, "...lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near." R.T. Byrum

You Took an Oath of Office!

Mr. Biden, on January 20th, 2021, you took an oath of office as the newly elected President of the United States of America to defend and protect the Constitution of the United States. You placed your right hand on the Bible as you took this oath of office. Mr. Biden, you have done nothing but promote corruption and abolishment of everything our beautiful country was founded on; God, life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Many a life has been sacrificed in defense of our country.

You have divided our nation with the senseless ideologies of CRT, WOKE, Cancel Culture. It was by your hand that America lost her energy independence. All orders signed by your hand are out of hatred for your predecessor. We are now a nation of open borders and illegal immigrants, most not properly vetted.

You stand by as Americans lose their freedom to speak and think without restraint, only to become cancelled if they oppose your evil politics of socialism. You advocate for infanticide, and the killing of innocent babies alive in a mother's womb, so helpless with no chance of life. You have spoken the words "no one left behind," while hundreds of Americans and Afghanis are now stranded in Afghanistan as you "ended America's longest war".

Mr. Biden, you left all Americans behind. You are nothing more than the Trojan Horse used by your Democratic Socialist Party to infiltrate our country with poisonous politics.

I do not blame anyone but you Mr. Biden for the uncertain and frightening future of our country.

Please resign before you make any further dangerous and destructive decisions for our nation. Carolanne Jordan

The War Between Nationalists and Globalists

By Karen Schoen

Sad to say, but we have leaders who are out to destroy America as you know it. From 2009 until today millions have been educated to accept a sinister plan to destroy this nation.

Called Agenda 21, this idea was crafted in 1992 at the Earth Summit in Rio De Janerio, Brazil. The plan was a continuation of the Rockefeller "Unfinished Agenda" addressing government control of human behavior and activity in order to "stop man-made Global warming, cooling or climate change." Science was tossed because this group wanted the power and control that putting these plans in place gave them and it was to be promoted and implemented ASAP. Without being read, or even written, the plan was pushed through the US Senate, by Pres. George Bush 41, under the name of Bio-Diversity in preparation for a "NEW WORLD ORDER (NWO).

Due to the actions of one scientist, Dr. Michael Coffman, and his famous map exposing their aim to force most land into conservation while pushing people into mega cities the Senate said, "NO."

But that didn't matter. Under new names of sustainability and conservation the plan is being implemented today. Under the plan, the UN now controls massive sections of America, the Florida Everglades is one site, thank you Jeb Bush. One thing to remember, whatever is said by any NWO pusher, they lie. How do you control millions of people, you lie to them.

The Agenda keeps getting renamed every time its tentacles are exposed. Today we have Agenda 21/2030, Green New Deal, Biden 30/30, and the Great Reset. They all mean the same thing. They are United Nations (UN) policies that will bring massive riches to those connected and abject poverty to those who aren't. According to the Agenda, NGO's (non-government organizations) will form regional councils (bypassing elected officials) to implement their plans. Does your community answer to a "water district" that jumps accountability to counties or states? That's how it works. The government will control every aspect of our lives in our 700 sq ft government-controlled apartment, while social credits instead of currency control our activity.

From George's H. Bush's speech, "What is at stake is more than one small country, it is a big idea - a new world order, where diverse nations are drawn together in common cause to achieve the universal aspirations of mankind: peace and security, freedom, and the rule of law. Such is a world worthy of our struggle, and worthy of our children's future."

Really George?!

We must remember: Everything is connection. Nothing is random. This group of Globalists are only interested in MONEY, POWER, CONTROL. They are only interested in helping you when they benefit in some sort of wealth distribution. Their behavior is that of a Psychopath: The true definition of a psychopath in psychiatry is antisocial personality disorder (ASPD). ASPD describes an individual who shows patterns of manipulation and violation of others.

Just remember, they hate you. You are in the way of their desire to control everything.

Agenda 21 et al, connects ALL the dots involving any form of human activity: invention, creation, patents, production and distribution for all goods and services. They connect using 4 areas - Equity, Economy, Environment, and Education. All sectors work towards sustainability (whatever they decide that is). Manipulating education is necessary to provide the glue by indoctrinating the kids to grow up believing the lies and implementing them.

While the Globalists are intertwining all aspects of human activity - nothing will work without the other and the media divides the narrative into sound bites so you will never see the connection. For example: by calling Americans "domestic terrorists" the FBI can collaborate with the CIA, DHS, etc. to dream up cases against Americans who do not follow their Hate America narrative.

Education: In order for humans to buy into the Globalist lies, indoctrination must start early - in kindergarten. The media reinforces the narrative but using most programs to promote some piece about humans destroying the planet. The Nazi's learned that by blaming the Jews for crop failure, people joined together against them.

Now we have a worldwide plan blaming humans for destroying the planet. "The common enemy of humanity is man. In searching for a new enemy to unite us, we came up with the idea that pollution, the threat of global warming, water shortages, famine and the like would fit the bill. All these dangers are caused by human intervention, and it is only through changed attitudes and behavior that they can be overcome. The real enemy then, is humanity itself."- Club of Rome, premier environmental think-tank, consultants to the United Nations.

By using lies and avoiding science, they scare people into believing it is their fault and they can "fix" it with their stringent plans. By hiding behind exaggerated environmental threats, they never have to explain their silent goal - depopulation. No people, no problems.

Schools today now teach inferior curricula (can't have smart Americans who will use science and math to disprove the narrative.)

In 1989, the change was made. According to Shirley McCune from the McRel Foundation:

1. Schools will no longer teach individualism; they will teach collectivism.
2. Schools will no longer educate. The purpose of schools will be for training. The Human Capital MUST work for the state.
3. Replace Facts with Values.

The feeling is Smart people require more from their government. Keep America Dumb. Today we face a war between Nationalists and Globalists. Don't buy their lies!

Are You Kidding Me?

By CS Bennett (The Conservative Prodigy)

Are you kidding me? Our leaders have at their beckoning, the resources of the CIA, NSA, Defense Intelligence Agency, State Department, and classified organizations I dare not mention here, some of them with unlimited and undisclosed budgets, and yet, we did not see this coming, according to the Biden Administration. So, why do most of these over-funded secret organizations exist?

Next question is, who are we up against? Let's see, the ragtag Taliban, who is supposed to be cooperating with us, ISIS-K (Islamic State Khorasan), and the infamous Al Qaeda, both who are our sworn enemies. Between the three, they are controlling various areas of Afghanistan now. It is in their killer hands that lie the fate of our defenseless American citizens, and those who aided us over the past twenty years, and yes, everyone of them abandoned by this illegitimate administration. Expect more stories of torture, rapes, and beheadings to come. No doubt, Biden has blood on his hands...

Much like in Vietnam, we spent billions fighting a long and protracted insurgency war, spilled the precious blood of thousands of our best and finest, and for what? In the end, North Vietnam took control of South Vietnam, and now, the Taliban has retaken, to some degree, control over Afghanistan. During the Trump administration, they feared us, and so did the other world powers. Al Qaeda was a group we had not heard from in years. ISIS was put down by our deadly commandos once Trump unleashed them.

Because democrat leadership does not look at the United States as being the world's superpower, (more like we should not be the world's sole superpower), then why should we be expected to conduct business, or fight, like we are a superpower? Makes sense to me. So, they allow us to get bullied, threatened, and kicked around by third-world countries. Just being truthful. Now, that I find deplorable.

It is understandable that when you do not conduct yourself as a respected and feared superpower, others are not going to treat you, or fear you, on that level. And that is where we are today in our foreign policy. It is a failed policy that has cost us the lives of thirteen brave United States uniformed warriors, two of them women. And we seem not to be outraged. I do not get it.

Sure, they'll have solemn services for all of the fallen, attended by the Washington elites, and then it's back to business as usual inside the Beltway. No one is held accountable, and no explanation offered for what is apparently incompetency or outright treason. To allow billions of dollars' worth of weapons to remain behind is a dereliction of duty. To run with our tails between our legs, while other Americans are being dragged, beaten, raped, and killed behind enemy lines, is unconscionable. It leaves a bad taste in our mouths.

A true leader, one who is a true patriot, and a true commander-in-chief, would not have allowed what happened in Afghanistan to happen. A true leader of the world's greatest economy, and most capable and powerful military, would not have allowed what happened there to happen. The thought of people fleeing and then being turned away by us, is inexcusable, intolerable.

And frankly, it makes my blood boil. It is a shameful and unbecoming image of America, and nothing the United States should ever be associated with or be portrayed as. Because of what happened, many older war veterans are ticked off. When are our spineless politicians going to be as committed as they expect us in the military to be when they use us as the tip of the spear of America's diplomacy? We are flesh and blood, you know. If you do your jobs, we can do ours. Fail to, and all I can say is you are a disgrace to your country. And that includes you Biden.

Yes, I am fuming. As a wartime veteran (Desert Storm), I have a right to be. Most of us know that a true American leader would have given those who dared challenge our resolve, an ultimatum.

"You have twelve hours to release our people, or we are going to rain down hellfire and brimstone on you, and I am talking on a level of biblical proportion. There will be no peace, or place on earth, you will be able to find, and hide from us, no disguise you can put on to fade away into the shadows. Understand this partner, we will find you."

"Hurt one hair on any American, and those you believed helped us, and that is the day you will violently meet your maker, and I emphasize violently. After you have assumed room temperature, only then will I ask the Almighty for his love, mercy, and forgiveness.

"So, you think you are tough, the baddest of the bad? Here, let me reintroduce to you our own brand of bad asses should you refuse to release our people and immediately. You do not kick us in the gut and expect not to have your teeth knocked out, women and baby killers that you are.

“Thinking of resting well tonight? Do not count on it. Already in your country are members of our elite Special Operations community, to include a highly classified CIA clandestine paramilitary unit, Delta Force, SEAL Team 6, US Marine Raiders (MAR-SOC), US Army Special Forces (Green Berets), US Army Rangers, and a no nonsense, take no prisoners, US Air Force Combat Controller Team, all with their sights on you.”

“So, in the spirit of Moses, you are warned; let our people go! Fail to do so, and you will face the wrath of America. And should you contemplate taking this to the next level, thinking China will come to your aid, we can bring in our well-trained and formidable regular armed forces and settle this right here, and right now! Still want to take us on?”

Yes, this is the ultimatum a real superpower leader would give. A US President would never compromise with cold-blooded killers. Not with the power the president and this country wields. Such a president would give Russia, North Korea, and especially China, a stern warning. Stay out of this! In all honesty, do not expect anything like this ultimatum from this current not ready for prime-time crew.

Sure, they may lob a few cruise missiles and claim that they did something, but when all is said and done, what they failed to do at the onset of this debacle, is shameful and defenseless. All I can pray is that the Almighty see to it that our people are returned home safely and soon. We also pray that a real leader will return to Washington DC, and clean house there, and soon!

Gender Ideology Run Amok

by Abigail Shrier in Imprimis magazine

In 2007, America had one pediatric gender clinic; today there are hundreds. Testosterone is readily available to adolescents from places like Planned Parenthood and Kaiser, often on the first visit - without even a therapist's note. How did we get to this point? How did we get to an

America in which a 13-year-old in the state of Washington can begin “genetic affirming” therapy without her parent’s consent?

How did we get to an America in which a 15-year-old in Oregon can undergo “top surgery” - elective double mastectomy - without her parent’s permission? And what can we do about it?

To understand how we got to this point it is useful to discuss “gender dysphoria” - the feeling of extreme discomfort in a person’s biological sex. Gender dysphoria is certainly real, it is also exceedingly rare.

For nearly 100 years of diagnostic history, gender dysphoria typically began in early childhood, between the ages of two and four, and involved a boy who insisted he was not a boy but a girl. Children who are afflicted are insistent, consistent, and persistent in the feeling they are in the wrong body. It is by all accounts excruciating - I’ve talked to many transgender adults, most of them biological males, who describe the relentless chafe of a body that feels all wrong.

Historically, this had been the classic presentation of gender dysphoria. When these children were left alone - when no one intervened medically or encouraged what we today call “social transition” - Over 70% of them naturally outgrew their gender dysphoria. Most of those who outgrew it became gay men. Those who did not outgrow it became what used to be known as transsexuals. They did not believe they were women, but they felt more comfortable presenting themselves as females.

Today, however we don’t leave these children alone. Instead, the moment children seem not to be perfectly feminine or perfectly masculine, we label them as “trans kids.” Teachers encourage them to reintroduce themselves to their classes with new names and new pronouns. We take them to doctors, nearly all of whom practice so-called “affirmative care” - they think it is their job to affirm the diagnosis of gender dysphoria and help the children medically transition.

The typical first step in treatment administered to these kids is puberty blockers, which shut down the part of the pituitary gland that directs the release of hormones catalyzing puberty. The most common of these drugs is Lupron, whose original purpose was the castration of sex offenders. To this day, the FDA has never approved this drug for halting healthy puberty.

One must wonder why a parent, or a doctor would take measures to stop a child’s puberty, given that even a child with genuine gender dysphoria would most likely outgrow that condition, if left alone. Puberty has helped some children overcome gender dysphoria. Scientists have no way of predicting which children will outgrow the dysphoria on their own and which ones won’t.

Proponents of “affirmative care” argue that allowing puberty to occur is traumatizing and dangerous for a gender dysphoric child. Suicide rates for trans-identified youth and trans adults are very high. Therefore, they say, we should treat children with gender dysphoria as soon and as dramatically as possible. Yet, there are no long-term studies to show if the use of puberty blockers reduces suicidality or even improve mental health.

What we do know is that puberty blockers prevent the development of secondary sex characteristics, sexual maturation, and bone density. We also know that in almost every case where a child’s healthy puberty is medically arrested that child proceeds to cross sex hormone treatment. And when puberty blockers and cross sex hormones are administered to a girl, she becomes infertile and may have permanent sexual dysfunction, given that her sexual organs never reach maturity.

Prior to 2012 there was no scientific literature on gender dysphoria arising in teenage girls. There has been a spike in the occurrence of transgender identification in girls that Lisa Littman, then from Brown University, called “rapid onset of gender dysphoria.” In little over a decade, a 4,400 percent increase in the number of teenage girls seeking treatment at the United Kingdom’s national gender clinic has occurred. And teenage girls are now the leading demographic claiming to have gender dysphoria across the western world.

This phenomenon has become a social contagion - the spread of ideas, emotions, and behaviors through peer influence. There is a long history of social contagion among this demographic. - anorexia and bulimia spread this way. We know that teen girls today are experiencing a mental health crisis on record with high rates of anxiety, self-harm and clinical depression. Add to that the fact that it is common for adolescent girls to be dissatisfied with their own developing bodies. And one can gain status and popularity now by declaring a trans-identity. Trans activists on social media push the idea that starting a course of testosterone can cure a girl’s problems. Put those things together and you get a social phenomenon.

Endocrinologists, psychiatrists, pediatricians, and researchers who are concerned about the risks of gender intervention in young people report that they struggle to get their research published. Public and private funding is almost entirely restricted to researchers who promote gender transition for children and downplay the risks of treatments that are not safe and are irreversible. There is a politicization of medicine and science on this subject that we should not accept in any area of medicine.

Young people are being allowed to self-diagnose gender dysphoria by a medical establishment that has decided that it’s their job to affirm and agree with trans-identified adolescents who have no possible idea of the ramifications of their decisions. Lies are being told about the risks of transition treatments and subsequent surgeries and lies are being told about how helpful these treatments are to a person’s ongoing mental health. The gender ideology behind these lies is a sibling of “woke” theories such as gender fluidity and critical race theory that are assaulting our culture and our children. We need to protect our young people from such threats to their identities and their health.

What Can You Do to Make the Country Better?

By Dennis Prager

If some think tank or polling organization asked 1,000 Americans: What's the best thing Americans can do to make the country better? Presumably, most influenced by their schooling and by the media, would answer something along the lines of - fight racism or work to reduce inequality. Most young people and those older - leaning to the left - most likely would respond citing some form of social activism.

Since the early 1960's and 70's a moral life has been defined as engaging in activism. One wants to improve America - indeed becomes a good person by fighting for a cause. That cause may be feminism, environmentalism, socialism, material equality, racial equality, LGBTQ + liberation, or the welfare state - free health care, free college tuition, free pre-school, free day care, free school breakfasts and lunches, even free incomes. But this is a massive break from the past.

Most Americans did not think the best thing they could do was become a social activist. Indeed, the term "social activist" is largely a creation of the second half of the 20th century.

Throughout American history until the post-World War II era, had you asked almost any American what constitutes living a good life, he or she would have offered any or all of these five responses: 1) Developing one's moral character. 2) Getting married and making a good family. 3) Taking care of one's family, especially one's parents. 4) Going to church (or synagogue). 5) Taking care of the poor in one's community, usually by joining a service organization such as a church charity, or a Kiwanis, Lion, or Rotary Club.

My suspicion is that if you ask young people or anyone on the left today, you wouldn't receive any of those responses.

The definition of moral character no longer means working on oneself. When people used to look to the Bible for wisdom rather than to their own foolish hearts and their foolish teachers, they knew how flawed human nature is, and therefore, knew that character development meant a lifelong struggle with oneself. Now it is a struggle with a flawed America.

What could possibly be better for society than the great majority of its people marrying and attempting to raise decent people? Yet, the unprecedented number of Americans who have not made a family (i.e. a married couple with children) now opt for the state taking care of more and more people. There is a pandemic of adult children who do not take care of their parents who are often removed from their lives.

Many highly educated people believe that religion is irrelevant to moral behavior. I ask them two simple questions: Why are almost no violent criminals regular churchgoers? If you were out alone at midnight and you saw a group of young men walking toward you, would you not be relieved to learn that they had just attended a Bible class?

Men used to join service organizations to do good in their communities and women volunteered in a whole host of charities. There is less volunteering today than in anytime in American history. It is much more exciting to join a demonstration than to do any of the things I have listed.

In a nutshell, the problem with our present existential crisis is people just don't think that the best thing they can do for this society is to lead an individually good life, be a good citizen and raise honorable children. Don't just join a protest group.

Courts Will Rule Against Biden on Vaccine Mandate Penalties

BY JACK PHILLIPS

Courts will likely agree that the federal government has the authority to enforce COVID-19 vaccine mandates but will argue that the rules and penalties cannot be enforced, said Harvard Law School professor emeritus Alan Dershowitz.

President Joe Biden last week said that he will direct the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) to mandate that employees at companies with 100 or more workers will have to either submit to weekly testing or get the COVID-19 vaccine. White House officials have said that fines will be handed down to those who don't comply with the rule.

"No. 1, is this something the federal government can do as compared to the states?" Dershowitz told Newsmax. "The states have police power. The federal government doesn't have police power. The federal government's powers have to derive from the text of the Constitution."

"There will be individuals who will be fired, and they'll sue immediately," he also remarked. "There will be companies—and I know there are some already who said we refuse to obey this mandate—and we've had companies and states indicate they're going to file suit."

"It's likely that courts will say that the government can enforce vaccine mandates but will argue that it is only Congress that can order punishments and fines," he said.

"You can't say it's an emergency," he continued. "This problem has existed since the first day of the Biden administration, and it will continue to exist on the last day of the Biden administration because we're not going to see an end of COVID."

When the mandates are handed down to companies under Biden's order, Dershowitz said that it will be a "big payday for lawyers" who will likely file numerous lawsuits on behalf of businesses and other entities.

IT'S TIME FOR AMERICAN BOOTS ON AMERICAN SOIL!

Carolanne Jordan

Wake up America! A fraudulent 2020 election of dishonest corrupt Progressive Socialists is allowed to pierce the heart and soul of many Americans without challenge from our United States Congress or United States Supreme Court. Many Executive Orders signed by the hand of Joe Biden putting America at risk of losing her sovereignty. Open boarders are inviting thousands of illegal immigrants into our country, some to escape hardships and search for independence now living in squalor without purpose and guidance. Others seek to disrupt and unsettle the lives of American citizens with fear, terror, plunder, burnings, lootings, killings, transporting of illicit drugs with a profit, feeding the minds and bodies of vulnerable young Americans. Supporting abortion and infanticide. All lives matter, even the lives of the unborn, don't they?

Indoctrination of Critical Race Theory, WOKE, and Cancel Culture into our schools, universities, churches, military, and work environments. Racial division at its worst. Defunding police and ICE. Loss of freedom to choose, speak, think, and write freely without being canceled, chastised, or arrested.

Politicians see what is happening to our country. They are not blind. It is Party loyalty before America first. Unwilling to defend America, the Constitution, Bill of Rights. All of America has been left behind. Not just the Americans and SIV hostages in Afghanistan or our MIA's. All of America has been left behind!

Our flag, as a symbol of FREEDOM. How soon we forget.

From the graves of our soldier brothers and sisters of yesterday and today, voices are crying out to every American

Patriot: "Boots on! Defend America! Take her back!"

LATE BREAKING NEWS Federal Oil & Gas Drilling Permits Soar

By Duggin Flanagan

Interior Secretary Deb Haaland is on pace to approve the most new oil and Gas Drilling permits since the George W bush administration.

The surge in permitting is a result of fast rising oil prices, the rejection by U.S. District Judge Terry Dougherty of President Joe Biden's would-be moratorium on new oil and gas permits on Federal lands, and reforms instituted under former President Barack Obama

Executive order 13604, issued in 2012, instituted Obama goal of "improving performance of Federal permitting and review of infrastructure projects."

Meanwhile, governors have loosened pandemic extractions on state economies, which is increased the demand for gasoline.
