1,000 LAWYERS AND 10,000 DOCTORS FILED A LAWSUIT FOR VIOLATIONS OF NUREMBERG CODE

NUREMBERG TRIALS 2021 VERSION

By Medeea Greere

A large team of more than 1,000 lawyers and over 10,000 medical experts, led by Dr. Reiner Fuellmich, initiated legal proceedings against the CDC, WHO and Davos Group for crimes against humanity.

Almost immediately, lawyers for the defendants claimed that the charges do not fall under the code established following the original Nuremberg Trials.

Whether or not the court finally decides the suit is valid, the public will get an eye and earful of the details leading up to the proceeding. Here are current details of the case:

Fuellmich and his team present the incorrect PCR test and the order for doctors to describe any co-morbidity death as a COVID-19 death – as fraud.

The PCR test was never designed to detect pathogens and is 100% inaccurate at 35 cycles. All PCR tests monitored by the CDC are set at 37 to 45 cycles. The CDC acknowledges that tests over 28 cycles are not allowed for a positive reliable result.

This invalidates over 90% of the alleged COVID-19 cases / “infections” detected by the use of this incorrect test.

In addition to the incorrect tests and fraudulent death certificates, the “experimental” vaccine itself violates Article 32 of the Geneva Convention.

Under Article 32 of the 1949 Geneva Convention, “mutilation and medical or scientific experiments not required for the medical treatment of a protected person” are prohibited.

According to Article 147, conducting biological experiments on protected persons is a serious breach of the Convention.

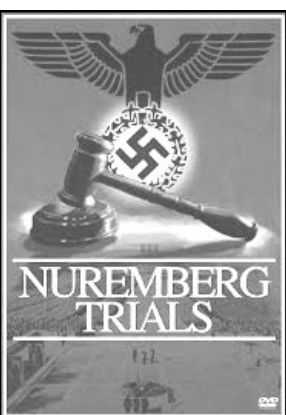

The “experimental” vaccine violates all 10 Nuremberg codes – which carry the death penalty for those who try to break these international laws.

1) Provides immunity to the virus: This is a “leaky” gene therapy that does not provide immunity to COVID-19 and claims that they reduce the symptoms, but double-vaccinated are now 60% of patients who need ER or ICU with COVID-19 infections.

2) Protects the recipients from getting the virus: This gene therapy does not provide immunity and the double vaccine can still catch and spread the virus.

3) Reduces deaths due to viral infection: This gene therapy does not reduce deaths from the infection. Double-vaccinated people infected with COVID-19 have also died.

4) Reduces the circulation of the virus: This gene therapy still allows the virus to spread because it gives zero immunity to the virus.

5) Reduces the transmission of the virus: This gene therapy still allows transmission of the virus because it does not confer immunity to the virus.

The above lawsuit addresses the critical issue of crimes against humanity. It has a lot of similarities to the Nuremberg Trials against the Nazi war criminals following World War II. For further personal research, watch the YouTube Video “Nuremberg” at <https://youtu.be/1s00-Dlpxb4>. It is nearly three hours long, but a compelling review of one of the most significant crimes in history.”

Houston Judge Dismisses VAX Nuremberg Case

HOUSTON — A federal judge threw out a lawsuit filed by employees of a Houston hospital system over its requirement that all of its staff be vaccinated against COVID-19 stating Texas was a Right-To-Work state.

The May 28 case by Jennifer Bridges, RN, argued the mandate is illegal and forces workers to get an experimental vaccine in order to keep their jobs.

Houston Methodist Hospital cited patient safety. Of the 26,000 employees, 117 sued seeking to overturn the requirement and over their suspension and threatened termination.

Houston Methodist President and CEO Marc Boom, MD, reported nearly 100 percent compliance as of June 8, although 178 employees, who did not get fully vaccinated or were not granted an exemption or deferral, were suspended.

In a ruling on June 7, U.S. District Judge Lynn Hughes of Houston deemed lead plaintiff Jennifer Bridges’ contention that the vaccines are experimental and dangerous to be false and otherwise irrelevant. He also found that her likening the vaccination requirement to the Nazis’ forced medical experimentation on concentration camp captives during the Holocaust to be reprehensible.

Hughes also ruled that making vaccinations a condition of employment was not coercion, as Bridges contended. Bridges can freely choose to accept or refuse a COVID-19 vaccine; however, if she refuses, she will simply need to work somewhere else. If a worker refuses an assignment, changed office, earlier start time, or other directive, he may be properly fired.

Every employment includes limits on the worker’s behavior in exchange for remuneration. That is all part of the bargain, Hughes concluded.

Jared Woodfill, a Houston lawyer representing Bridges and the other clients, promised an appeal. —All of my clients continue to be committed to fighting this unjust policy, Woodfill said in a statement. What is shocking is that many of my clients were on the front line treating COVID-positive patients at Texas Methodist Hospital during the height of the pandemic.

THE POLITICS OF EMOTION

The fact of the matter is that the leadership on the left wants to keep their constituents in a state of depression, agitation, and hopelessness. It keeps their minds off the good things going on in the country.

LEFTISTS BLAME AMERICA, DECENT PEOPLE BLAME THEMSELVES

America has been a great country because it was built on the belief that we all must fight against our natures (and fight for our country). Lefts hold outside forces responsible for their pain.

HAVE YOU SEEN THESE HEADLINES BEFORE?

Pay attention because they are more than headlines, they are omens of the approaching time of God’s judgment.

Letter to the Editor: Why I Won't Take the Vaccine

I am a proud Republican, deplorable, Walmart shopper and patriot. I will not be getting the COVID-19 vaccine due to many different reasons. Thirty percent of my reasoning in saying no to the shot is political. I have no faith or trust in the federal government, Sleepy Joe, Queen Inslee and the Democrat Party. Basically, all liberals care about is how much money they can get from my wallet and attacking our constitutional rights.

Forty-five percent of my reasoning for not getting the shot is the very poor track record of the manufactures of the vaccines. The information that I found about these manufacturers is scary.

Ten percent of my reasoning for not getting the vaccine is that the vaccine isn't FDA approved yet. I am not a guinea pig.

Another 10% of my reasoning is that nobody knows the long term effects of the vaccine yet. The manufacturers of the vaccines were given immunity so that they cannot be sued or be held liable, which bothers me.

The last 5% is that trying to force, shame or restrict my rights to force me to get the vaccine will only make my resistance to the vaccine stronger. I am being told that being forced to get the vaccine is like having insurance and driver's license to drive a car or being forced to pay taxes. I believe that these are totally two different subjects. Forcing a person to inject an untested foreign substance into someone's body without knowing the long term effects is scary. My body, my choice.

The Democrats have been crying about this for years about pro-choice concerning abortions.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:

Progressive Marxism is nothing but Communism, which is trying to erase America's heritage.

Faith of Our Mothers was written in 1920 by Arthur B. Patten, and sung to the tune of Faith of our Fathers.

"Faith of our mothers, living still, In cradle song and bedtime prayer; In nursery lore and fireside love, Thy presence still pervades the air. Faith of our mothers living faith, We will be true to thee till death."

The Liberals can't take that from me whatever name they want to change mother too. I am adopted, praise the Lord!

Critical Race Theory divides our school children pitting our children one against another by race. Critical Race Theory is also promoted in our military. "Space Force commander is FIRED for warning the spread of 'Critical Race Theory; is rooted in Marxism' throughout military." If our military isn't cohesive that undermines our national security.

Political commissars, AOC, Tlaib, Pressley and Omar are attempting to control public opinion saying Israeli's are terrorists while screaming collateral damage. Hamas was named a terrorist by organization the US over 20 years ago, who hides in schools and hospitals. If a hospital is hit, naturally there will be collateral damage. This is demonic!

This administration just put through a COVID-19 bill at the tune of 1.7 Trillion dollars. Only 9% was for COVID-19 relief and the rest used to bail out CA, NY NJ, because they cannot manage their budgets.

The rest of the responsible country is bailing them out. Now we are told that some of the COVID-19 relief bill is going to help pay for food, transporting illegals into states without the knowledge of their governors, housing and support funds for illegals who are pouring into our country with Fentanyl and human tragedy. Now they are proposing another relief called "Infrastructure". When totaled to the COVID-19 bill: which has little to do with rebuilding our roads and bridges. Most of the money will go for candy for America's Progressive Marxists. The bill will put America in debt six-trillion dollars. Say "NO" to the Infrastructure bill until the border is really closed and Border Patrol Agents are back in charge.

How many cockamamie proposals have come out of the mouths of progressives such as, defund police, rewriting America's history with 1619, claims there was no vaccine when Biden went into office, you are not patriotic if you do not wear a mask, and we need HR1, which was the reason for the debacle of the 2020 election. Marxists want a repeat debacle.

Vote NO on HR1, that bill will give the progressives the next election, and you America you can say "goodbye" to what used to be normal.

American's, please put on your rational thinking caps. Be smart voters in 2022, investigate the candidate you want to make your decisions and promote him or her. Whoops, they do not want us to use him or her. Do not allow progressive Marxist to make a puppet of you. Stand up for your God given rights and use your common sense and vote to make America great again!

PRIDE goes before destruction

Dear Editor

Proverbs 16:18 NIV - "Pride goes before destruction, a haughty spirit before a fall."

The month of June was declared Pride Month. A celebration of being who you are and what you want to be. This idea is a declaration that God is not wanted nor needed. A declaration that man can save himself, can do what he wants with no consequences.

Pride is the main reason why people do not believe in and worship God.

The temptation to be one's own god and worship one's self as an idol is very great to the fallen human race. It is that temptation that separated man from a freedom of suffering, hunger, and pain. When men defy God's judgments, and think themselves far from them, it is a sign they are at the door of destruction. Not because God hates, but because every action has a consequence.

The rainbow flag, created by artist Gilbert Baker in 1978, is used as a symbol of LGBTQ pride. Each color on the flag has its own meaning of defiance to God's warnings.

On the six-color flag, red is symbolic of life, orange is symbolic of spirit, yellow is sunshine, green is nature, blue represents harmony and purple is spirit. On the eight-color flag, hot pink was included to represent sex and turquoise to represent magic/art.

All things God explicitly warned not to worship, but still leaves us free to choose.

In 2021, the flag was altered in solidarity with the Black Lives Matter protests, including black to represent diversity, brown to represent inclusivity and light blue and pink, the colors of the trans pride.

In the Bible's flood narrative, God covered the earth to wash away humanity because of these sins. God placed a seven colored rainbow in the sky as a sign of His promise with humanity that he would never flood the earth again. Waving a Pride Flag breaks that covenant. Waving it celebrates the defiance of God's warnings. It is a direct challenge of God's wrath. But, don't expect a flood the next time. God keeps to His Word.

It is true that like Adam and Eve we are free to choose; for what is love that is not freely given and freely accepted? It is slavery. The very evil many flying a Pride Flag are declaring they are defending against. By waving that flag one is declaring they have the "freedom" to save themselves from consequences.

If you cannot see it, you are asleep to the warning to turn away from defiance of God's advice about reaping and sowing consequences. You cannot plant an orange tree seed and reap apples.

The consequence of planting a pride tree is a prideful spirit. It grows a tree that bears an anti-Christ spirit. This behavior opens the door for an antichrist to come and enslave you. It produces a haughty spirit before a major fall.

Don't condemn those who celebrate Pride Month, pray that their eyes will be opened to the consequences. Tell them the Good News of Christ's gift.

—Ed Baldrige

Show your appreciation for those in law enforcement

A few weeks ago, the Highlands Tea Party showed their appreciation to local law enforcement with plaques and small gifts of snacks. But, they deserve our support everyday.

Recent events tell us of the perils law enforcement face today all over the world. The lockdown from COVID-19 created a tremendous amount of stress on everyone, especially those who were essential and could not stay home. With sick family.

Unrest in every city put law enforcement in harm's way more then ever before, and the serious uptick in violence as some major cities are causing thousands to choose early retirement or to outright quit. Cities are now facing shortages in manpower to help serve and protect.

We can't change the world as a whole, but we can choose to make a difference in our local communities by just showing our appreciation.

There are so many ways to show support:

- Send a card of support to your local police department or state agency.
- Participate in Project Blue Light by replacing your porch or landscape light with a blue light.
- If you see a police officer grabbing a coffee, anonymously pay for their order.
- Share positive law enforcement stories and experiences on social media.
- Wear blue to show your support for law enforcement.

Finally, just say thank you. Whenever you see law enforcement personnel, simply walk up and thank them for serving, or wave and smile at passing officers. Our officers put their lives on the line every day to ensure a safe community for us all, and thanking them is the least we can do to show our gratitude. On behalf of all law enforcement, thank you for your continued support.

A LOOK BEHIND THE CURTAIN!

A Heartland Herald Op-Ed

Watching our nation being dismantled one freedom at a time is painful, but even more so, it is baffling. Having survived attacks from outside enemies by war, terrorism, theft of intellectual property, election interference, and, most recently, biological warfare, the U.S. seemed invulnerable.

Then 2016’s unprecedented presidential victory in the form of the socialist left’s most unexpected challenger, awakened the sleeping communist bear.

Donald J. Trump was God’s response to millions of prayers to rescue America from the decades of failed and corrupt governing from our local, state and federal leaders. Such an attack on the progressive agenda could not be allowed, yet the Trump train seemed unstoppable by any Constitutional means.

The flesh-and-blood enemies of Mr. Trump tried everything to unseat this usurper of everything the leftists and Republicans In Name Only (RINO’s) had strived to accumulate. Their hate extended to the 75+million supporters who had dared to cast votes for sanity and freedom.

First they tried impeachment based on a Clinton financed fake dossier that read like a juvenile “gottcha.” That failed!

They accused the President of colluding with Russians to steal the election. That failed.

They attempted to charge Trump with sexual abuse with a pitiable witness who proved nothing more than how the left will use people to win by any means. That failed.

Then MSNBC’s Rachel Maddow (rhymes with Madcow) breathlessly waved a couple of pages of Mr. Trump’s past tax return on her over-promoted program to prove tax fraud. Other than bringing humiliation on her and the network, the entire pageant showed only that the President was very rich, and that he had paid millions in quarterly taxes.

When every endeavor to find grounds to impeach the most successful leader in modern times fell through, they aimed at the 2020 election.

The desperate struggles of socialists could not stop what God had ordained, so they threw all caution aside and pulled off the most corrupt fraud and crime perhaps in the history of this country...they nullified the votes of millions and stole the election.

Conservative media sources aired videos of voting machines being manipulated and charts showing timelines of votes being shifted from Trump to Biden.

Testimonies, emails and documentation left no doubt in the unbiased mind that the man and woman acting as President and Vice President were the true usurpers.

Consider Hosea 8:4 where God says, “They set up kings, but not by Me; They made princes, but I did not acknowledge them.”

Where does such desperation come from that would cause citizens of arguably the greatest nation in history to commit tyranny? There answer lies behind the curtain.

Christians are fully aware of the approaching time of judgment on this world by the prophetic signs listed in the article on headlines in this issue. They are also aware that as that deadline approaches, the dark force behind the curtain is stirring with anger and hate.

Apostle John describes that in Revelation 12:12, “...woe to the earth and the sea; with great fury the devil has come down to you, knowing he has only a short time.”

Yes, Satan is aware of the signs listed in the following article entitled, “HAVE YOU SEEN THESE HEADLINES BEFORE?”

When Christ returns, the devil and his fallen angels will be imprisoned until the time of their punishment. In the mistaken hope that he can delay or prevent that day, the devil uses ordinary human beings referred to as his offspring in Genesis 3:15, “I (God) will put enmity between you and the woman (Mary), and between your offspring (lawless ones) and her offspring (Jesus); He shall bruise your head, and you shall bruise his heel.”

Regardless of who you follow, what is in the nearing future will happen and God is the One in control. He can set up leadership to bless, or He can use false leadership to punish a nation when it refuses to confess and repent of sins ranging from the murder of the unborn, to the abomination of sexual immorality.

Soon and very soon, the devil behind the curtain will appear in the form of a surrogate tyrant known as Antichrist. What the mindless puppets in power do not realize is that they are hastening the Day of Judgment on the nations and on themselves.

As for the rest of us, our hope is found in Luke 21:28, “When these things begin to take place, stand up and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

History Is Made—a Nation Was Created In One Day

On May 14, 1948, David Ben-Gurion, the head of the Jewish Agency, proclaimed the establishment of the State of Israel. U.S. President Harry S. Truman recognized the new nation the same day.

Twentieth Century Records Greatest Knowledge Increase within recent History

Almost every discovery and advancement in medicine, communication, and invention we use today, has been accomplished since the 20th century. At present there are approximately 25,000 research institutes and universities in the world. Never has the world been more educated.

Middle East Peace Accords at Risk by War Between Iran- Backed Terrorists and Israel

Tensions between Israelis and Palestinians escalated this week as Hamas launched rockets into Israel and Israeli security forces struck the Gaza Strip with ferocity last witnessed in the 2014 Gaza War. Israeli tanks have been mobilized, and a full-blown war seems imminent.

Church Attendance Dropping Drastically in Recent Decades

According to Barna Group, as of 2019, prior to COVID, less than 30% of American’s attend church. Just 26 years prior it was at 48%. The surveys also showed there has been a consistent decline for the past 19 years, with presently only 1 out of 4 Americans practicing Christianity.

If your answer to these headlines is, “Sure, I’ve seen them so what?” After all, such headlines are appearing daily in our newspapers and on radio and television newscasts. Right? Pay close attention because these are more than headlines, they are omens of the approaching time of God’s judgment.

Christians should not be surprised or even overly fearful of these events, for we were warned of such things coming our way by words written thousands of years ago.

Nation Created In a Day:
Isaiah 66:8 “Who has ever heard of such things? Who has ever seen things like this? Can a country be born in a day or a nation be brought forth in a moment? Yet no sooner is Zion (Israel) in labor than she gives birth to her children.”

Famines, Covid-19 Plague, War in Middle East, Earthquakes

Matthew 24:3, 6-7 “As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. “Tell us,” they said, “when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?” You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. Believers know these signs announce that we are to “Look up, for our redemption is near!”

For the rest, these same signs are a warning to seek understanding of John 3:16-17 for your own eternal peace and safety.

The Same Left That Hid HIV Status Now Demands Proof of “VAX” Status?

By Karen Kataline

Remember when the left made a cause célèbre of keeping the HIV status of mostly gay people private? They said a person shouldn't have to disclose b HIV positive even to a sexual partner who could contract it.

In a complete 180, they now say that people who continue to make decisions about their own health should have to disclose their “vaccination status” to the media and the public.

Never mind that people who are fully vaccinated should supposedly not need to care. There are no boundaries of privacy in a socialist society.

For example, the writer of the following piece is horrified that despite massive social pressure, Sam Darnold claims the right to determine for himself whether he will allow himself to be injected with an experimental drug:

Note that the writer also uses the story to inform the public that, “Employers do have the right, under U.S. law, to force their employees to get vaccinated.” He neglects to mention that a flurry of lawsuits testing this in court as we speak.

The overt socialist/communist Left has done an out-face on just about every issue they said they used to care most about:

Women's sports and women's rights:
250 lb men can pummel women in a wrestling ring but we're against violence against women

The Environment: It's okay for cities to be trashed with garbage and human waste, but we must retro-fit buildings so they have no windows.

Public safety: We must ignore whether illegal aliens are criminals or have COVID but we must police law-abiding citizens even to the point of keeping them locked in their homes.

Free speech: We used to claim to be champions of free thought and free speech. Now, we burn books and censor people for expressing dissenting opinions. Lenny Bruce would be proud.

Privilege: We scream about “privilege” but we give the wealthiest billionaires and British royalty a pass as long as they parrot our Leftist propaganda.

Racism: We were adamantly against segregation, racist stereotypes, and discrimination. Now we actively champion all of those things in the service of demonizing all white people and Trump voters regardless of their color or ethnicity.

Unless we continue to point out their true purpose and connect the dots, we'll be chasing the fantasy they keep spinning.

If there is such a thing as “political sanity” it's practically a requirement. Never trust the headline.

About the only thing consistent about this bunch these days is how it's never about what they say it's about. It's always about erasing free will, personal responsibility and Liberty itself.

Of course we can argue the specific points but we should never trust their stated motive.

The Politics of Emotion

By CS Bennett

Like you, I have many friends, and relatives, who are liberals. Most follow that ideology because their family members have been democrats and socialists for decades on end others because they are uninformed.

Some are moved by the touchy-feely aspects of liberalism and socialism.

What we need to remember is that these ideologies are designed to tug at one's heartstrings and impact people on an emotional level. However, there are other reasons why those on the left reach out to people on an emotional level, and it is a well-orchestrated strategy.

When I visit my hometown of Philadelphia, most of the poor and disadvantaged I encounter, and speak to, are full of anger and hostility and have a bleak view of the future. They are quick to blame life, politicians (namely republicans), the Founding Fathers, and President Trump for their misery. Never mind the fact that possibly some of the bad choices, and decisions, they made in life got them in the predicament they now find themselves in.

The fact of the matter is that the leadership on the Left wants to keep their constituency in a state of depression, agitation, and hopelessness. It keeps their minds off the good things going on in the country and within the minority community. Even if they see improvement, it is never enough. Even if they take home more money, because of the tax cuts, it is only because Trump is grandstanding, and really doesn't care about people.

When their leaders need to stir the Black community into action, whether over a police shooting, or some other injustice they perceive, and want the community to react to, they push the race button or the class envy button or the homophobic button, knowing well that minorities will respond, and respond loudly, and with outrage.

Some of these protests are justified, but most of them are contrived, or exaggerated. Sadly, such communities have been programmed to see things through the prism of race, class envy and homophobia. Remember, there is a reason why they have been conditioned to think of themselves as victims.

Victims of oppression, no doubt, hold the moral high ground. This is a great position to base one's struggles, or cause, on. And the leaders of the left know this. Those who are deemed the oppressors, are the scum of the earth and as such can be demonized. In America, that translates into the Republican Party.

Unfortunately, our establishment leadership on the right has not helped our cause in anyway. They have little, or no, interest in what made this grand ole party what it is before they came along and corrupted the brand name. I say, we as patriots, need to reclaim our proud party, and our rich anti-slavery heritage, and restore it to prominence and influence in America. This we must do and do with purpose and with vigor. And yes, add some passion to the mix, too. Let's save our republic, and our liberties and freedoms, too.

Pop Quiz: How do you determine a liberal and RINO from a true Republican conservative?

Answer: Liberals and RINOs refer to our country as a democracy. We on the right, and rightly so, refer to it as a constitutional republic....!

ANALYSIS/ OPINION:

By Jenny Beth Martin

Jenny Beth Martin is the co-founder of Tea Party Patriots.

Critical race theory has managed to sneak its way into the U.S. federal government, our nation's schools and corporate training programs. Americans are beginning to realize the insidious nature of this Marxist ideology that views racism as the primary force at work in our society.

Marxism, of course, relies on a theory of class struggles, but critical race theory seeks to achieve its Marxist objectives through race struggles instead. Class struggles have always been difficult for Marxists to manufacture here in the United States because of our economic mobility and historical lack of an aristocracy.

Karl Marx advocated for “class consciousness,” the awareness of one's own class position and broader struggle within the class hierarchy. In the same way, critical race theory strives for “race consciousness,” allowing one to see not only race struggles, but also achieve “race attitude awareness.” An obsession with class in Marxism has been adapted for America with an obsession with race.

Critical race theory has explicitly Marxist objectives, including abolishing the free market. Advocates of critical race theory advance the idea that capitalism is inherently racist, and true programs to eradicate racism will also be anti-capitalist by their very nature.

Clever language is an important part of critical race theory, and its advocates are careful to use code words and a softer-sounding vocabulary than Karl Marx was fond of using. Critical race theory, therefore, speaks frequently about “equity.” Linguistically, equity is close to equality, but in real-world application, the pursuit of equity turns equality upside-down on its head, as it is fixated on equal outcomes, even as it makes situations and opportunities less fair to achieve such outcomes.

As classes switched to virtual sessions over the past year, parents saw critical race theory being taught in their living rooms on computer screens, and they began to realize that this dangerous ideology is far-reaching and seeps into every academic subject for many children in public schools across the nation.

At Tea Party Patriots Action, we have heard from concerned parents, community leaders, and even some students about how pervasive this indoctrination program is, and we continue to hear questions about how to reverse course in the schools.

There is good news for Americans here — we are equipped to win this fight. Education is a local matter, and our founders rightly saw fit with the 10th Amendment of the Constitution to leave much of the day-to-day governance of our lives to the states and local governments. We can engage at the local level exactly the way our founders envisioned.

Our organization is now launching a new program, the United We Stand Center, to help provide resources to families and local communities to fight back against this race-based curriculum. Our center will train Americans on how to recognize critical race theory, how to speak to local school board officials and educators, and even how to talk to state legislators about introducing legislation to combat this curriculum.

Critical race theory is an ugly ideology that sows hatred toward not only our country but also the free market economic system that goes hand in hand with individual liberty. Fortunately, we have the tools — and the resolve — to stop this Marxist ideology in its tracks.

TYRANNY, OPPRESSION,
DEATH and DESTRUCTION:
End Products of Democratic Socialism

Article by Charles Wills—Canada Free Press

The rise of socialists like Bernie Sanders and Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, within the godless Democrat party, should concern all Americans, especially Christians and religious Jews. Why any American, in their right mind, would vote for a socialist politician is puzzling. Maybe people just don't know the history of socialism; its crimes against humanity.

To set the record straight, socialism in any form is a dystopia (a vision of a very bad place) devoid of Freedom, Liberty and Justice. It doesn't matter if it's called liberalism, progressivism or a democracy because these words are used by socialists to obscure the true nature of their tyrannical communist ideology. The word democracy, that politicians and the media like to throw in our faces every day, is nothing more than a euphemism for socialism.

Joseph Goebbels, Hitler's Minister of Propaganda, stated: "The modern structure of the German state is a higher form of democracy in which, by virtue of the people's mandate, the government is exercised authoritatively." (Meaning) There's no God, No Justice, No Freedom and No Liberty, and there's no room for people who believe in a higher power or God's laws.

Unfortunately, many American's have been misled to believe that socialism is a fairer form of Government; a benevolent paradise. However, history reveals that socialism is more like a prison for the masses. To be exact, socialism is a system where misery and deprivation are shared by the masses, and wealth, power and abundance are only shared by the rich tyrants who run the socialist state.

The socialist idea of wealth redistribution doesn't mean, as Democrat socialists would have everyone believe, that the government will provide the poor with money, free healthcare, good food, nice clothes, new cars and nice homes. Those things are only obtainable by people who live in a free, capitalistic society where people are free to work and earn enough money to buy those things. People who have to rely on a socialist government for a living will never be able to obtain those things, no matter how hard they work.

In addition, for every poor peasant that benefits to any degree from socialistic wealth redistribution, fifty middle class families are reduced to poor peasants. That's how wealth redistribution works in a socialist society. Under socialism, there's only wealthy leaders and poor working peasants - the proletariat. The proletariat is the poorest class of working people, and they make up the majority of the masses under socialism.

In conclusion, socialism is not the benevolent utopia that Democrats and academics claim it is. Democratic socialism is a system where godlessness, heartlessness and evil reign supreme. As history has repeatedly shown, tyranny, oppression, death and destruction are the end products of democratic socialism, regardless of whether it's called democratic socialism or communism by its promoters. In reality, they are one and the same.

SOCIALISTS' ATTEMPT TO DECEIVE A NATION

By Michael Guidera, Contributing Writer

Deep State puppet master, George Soros, who made his fortune in the financial markets, now uses that same wealth to destroy them. He argues, "The spread of market values into all areas of life is the danger to our open and democratic society. The main enemy of that open society is no longer communism but rather capitalism." If you are not a Marxist/communist, you must be eliminated.

No one in their right mind would choose tyranny over freedom. So how can we be moving in that direction? The only way for the American people to accept tyranny is to deceive them. I believe deception is being used by the mainstream media and social media platforms to vilify those who do not support their agenda. Deception is defined as: "the act of causing someone to accept as true or valid what is false or invalid." The media uses methods to do just that.

Media has a responsibility to the American people to be truthful in reporting the news without bias. They are no longer capable of reporting on anything without pushing a preconceived agenda, an agenda happens to line up with goals of the principality of tyranny.

How does the media actually get people to believe what they say is true? I came across an article entitled "Media Manipulation of the Masses: How the Media Psychologically Manipulates" by Samuel Lopez De Victoria, Ph.D.

The author describes the deceptive techniques used by the media to put forth a narrative they want you to believe. A summary of the manipulative techniques is listed below. To further understand them, you can read the article in the link above.

Method #1-Guilt by Association, to defame a person

Method #2-Just a Little Poison, mix truth with a lie

Method #3-Make it Funny, it becomes easier to swallow.

Method #4-Sandwich a positive comment between two negative comments

Method #5-In a group interview, make it one sided, stack the deck

Method #6-Ridicule and Labeling. Labels stick.

Method #7- Repetition Makes True

Method #8-Make Evil, Good and Good, Evil

These methods are used constantly by the media. People watching and reading are not aware they are being manipulated.

Another method used to deceive is censorship. Twitter and Facebook decide what is truth and what is not. Posts that disagree with their narrative are deleted and accounts blocked. By removing opposing views, readers are "allowed" to see the deception and not the truth.

Prior to election night in 2016, the democrats thought they would win. A miracle happened and they lost. Panic set in as they realized that without the control of the White House, their corrupt deeds could be exposed. A playbook was written to keep the country in chaos for the next four years.

Each event was carefully crafted to try and take Trump out of office. This video lays out their plan. How is this plan not understood by the public for the fraud that it is? Enter stage right, the mainstream media. They have failed to report the truth and use deception to keep the American public in the dark. Even worse, they have twisted the truth to make it look like good is evil, and evil is good. They have deceived much of the public into believing Trump and all his supporters are traitors to the Constitution and the democrats are the saviors. It is the most bizarre delusion ever conceived in the history of our nation.

All crimes have a motive, all demonic activity has a purpose. Deception is being used to fool people into choosing tyranny over freedom.

There is a spirit of deception that influences the media to put forth a narrative that is contrary to the truth. Read what King David was inspired to write in Psalm 5:5-7: The boastful shall not stand in Your sight; You hate all workers of iniquity. You shall destroy those who speak falsehood; The Lord abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man. This Psalm demonstrates we have a scriptural basis for taking a stand against this evil.

“SYSTEMIC LIBERALISM” GONE WRONG

By John Shoemaker

Radical liberals have had enough. They are outraged about so-called "systemic racism". Americans felt legitimate outrage for the death of a Black man by police in Minneapolis. America was united behind that, awful act. BLM never let the crisis go to waste.

The message is on billboards, basketball courts, advertisements, television programs and professional athletes show messages on their jerseys, helmets, and whatever.

We are slowly waking up to the "scam" that has befallen us. The BLM movement was hijacked by radicals inside the protests.

Even now, many believe that BLM is about stopping police brutality and safeguarding Black lives. Therefore, BLM must raise the

Leftists Blame America, Decent People Blame Themselves

By Dennis Prager

As long ago as the 1970s, I came to a major realization. While watching fellow students at Columbia University demonstrate not just against the war in Vietnam but against “Amerika,” as many spelled it, I saw that, to them, we were an “imperialist,” “mass-murdering” “colonialist,” country. I wondered what made these people so hostile to the freest country in human history.

Then, one day, as a result of my having attended a yeshiva (an Orthodox Jewish day school) through high school, the reason became clear. Half of each school day was devoted to religious studies in Hebrew, and the other half was devoted to secular studies in English. This meant that I had been immersed in a religious worldview until college.

Though it was Jewish, this worldview could also be called “Judeo-Christian.” Students at traditionally Christian schools were immersed in essentially the same worldview. We were all taught that the most important battle we need to wage in life was with our own nature. Jews and Christians learned from the same Scripture that “the will of man’s heart is evil from his youth” (Genesis 8:21).

Therefore, being a good person involved a constant battle with our flawed human nature: our urges, appetites, and innate weaknesses. This battle was also the only real route to a better world. Every individual had to work on him or herself to be decent, strong, courageous, and self-controlled, and every parent had to work, first and foremost, on raising such people.

One day, I came to realize that this was not how the vast majority of my fellow students were raised. They were raised to believe that the great battle in life was not with one’s nature but with outside forces—with parents, in many cases, but most of all with society, i.e., America.

All of us, whatever our political outlook, have to confront personal failure, loss, disappointment, and unhappiness. When confronted with these challenges, religious Jews and Christians are taught to look inward for both the primary source of their problems and the primary solutions to those problems: What have I done wrong? What can I change in my life to solve my problems?

Of course, some nonreligious liberals and conservatives also have this attitude. But most of them likely inherited it from religious parents or, at the very least, from parents who were raised in a religious home or a home that retained the remnants of such an upbringing, which was common in pre-1960s America. (It is therefore questionable how many secular parents will succeed in passing this attitude on to their children.)

The left, which proudly rejects Judeo-Christian values, has adopted the opposite of the Judeo-Christian view regarding pain in life. Leftists (as opposed to liberals) hold outside forces responsible for their pain. That is the reason for the litany of left-wing enemies: capitalism, patriarchy, misogyny, homophobia, systemic racism, Islamophobia, trans-phobia, sexism, and xenophobia.

So, then, if you are an unhappy American woman, you can work on yourself and your nature, or you can blame sexism and patriarchy, i.e., men, for your pained state.

If you are an unhappy gay American, you can work on yourself, or you can blame society’s homophobia for your unhappiness.

And, most significantly, if you are an unhappy black American, you can work on yourself and life, or you can blame systemic racism and whites for your anger and unfulfilled life.

All this explains why the left encourages every group except for white, Christian, heterosexual males to regard themselves as oppressed. The more oppressed women, gays, blacks, etc., see themselves, the more they are alienated from America and its values, and the more they gravitate left. In light of this, I came up with a riddle: Q: What do you call a happy black person? A: A Republican.

Without an exception I can recall, over the course of decades, I have guessed the political affiliation of every black caller to my radio show within a minute of talking to them. If they sounded happy, I knew they were a Republican; if they were angry, I knew they were a Democrat. This has held true for male and female callers.

America has been a great country because it was built on the belief that we must all fight against our natures (and fight for our country).

It is difficult to overstate the damage the left is doing to this country by abandoning the fundamental Judeo-Christian teaching that we must fight our natures in order to lead a more decent and happy life and replacing it with the belief that we must battle America instead.

This replacement inevitably leads to a population of unhappy, ungrateful, and mean-spirited human beings—precisely the type of individuals you see rioting and looting, the type of elected officials who do nothing to stop rioters and looters, the columnists and academics who devote their lives to spewing hate-filled lies about America, and the Twitter mobs who comprise the toxic cancel culture.

It will lead to what the left concedes it seeks: the end of America as we know it.

Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves, and, under a just God cannot long retain it. --Abraham Lincoln

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT VIOLATES EDUCATION CODE

By Karen Schoen

“The liberties of a people never were, nor ever will be, secure, when the transactions of their rulers may be concealed from them.” -Patrick Henry

So many bills are written then are ignored. Did you know that every day everyone violates some law or regulation? Even the President and legislators and representatives violate the law. The problem is most Americans hardly know because they are busy with life.

Most Representatives don’t know the law either because too often older laws are not removed and replaced by the new laws, creating an impossible to track situation. That is the problem. If our representatives knew the law, they would tell Biden that the Federal Government has no right to meddle in education. Grants that demand that schools teach curricula like Critical Race Theory (CRT), or common core are a violation of the law. U.S. Code Unannotated Title 20 Education § 1232a. Prohibition against Federal control of education.

Now the states are busy writing laws to eliminate this America hating, family hating, God hating Critical Race Theory (CRT). But are they prepared to oversee if the laws are being followed? Are they demanding oversight from their Department of Education? Are School Boards (SB) engaged? Or are parents being placated when they go to SB meetings and ask, “Are you teaching CRT?” and get, “NO”, for an answer.

By eliminating the words Critical Race Theory and using other warm fuzzy words to describe the same thing you will find CRT is there. The method they use is called subliminal messaging. This along with repetition is a tool used by advertisers, you know the psychological manipulators.

I found a perfect example of this method used in the image which is page 23 of the Savvas (formerly Pearson) teacher’s manual. Basically it is how to use propaganda to turn students into America hating, family hating and God hating activists. This page tells you how. You must use: Charged Language, Parallelism, Repetition and Analogy.

How does subliminal messaging work? Here is an example:

The Florida BEST Standards calls for the use of original source documents. Dr. King’s, “I Have a Dream Speech” is the document they choose. This is a highly persuasive speech focused on HOPE but with the use of subliminal messaging the reader is guided and nudged to feel the emotion of segregation and HATE. Practice responses:

Students should restate King’s claim in paragraph 3, “The Negro is still not free.” This wipes out 60 years of history and the student is guided to believe, The Negro is still not free. America still has segregated buses, water fountains and we are still living in the 50’s.

Charged Language: They want the student to focus on poverty and hate, not the good that came out of the civil rights movement. So the Black families in affluent Naples, FL don’t exist and the White families should feel guilty they live there. While the Whites living in poverty don’t count either because they are not part of the minority and besides they are white and privileged.

When we bring this way of thinking into society and culture we have Americans thinking that everything in life must be fair, for the common good, diversified, inclusive, etc. It doesn’t matter how hard you work, We will all get the same results.

This guilt trip opens the door to reparations instead of using facts of what Americans have done since the speech to rectify the bad. Biden just granted reparations (Covid aid) to minority farmers while excluding the white farmers. We are going backwards.

By not mentioning the vast accomplishments of Civil Rights movement realizing most of the Dreams, students are guided into feeling guilty, full of despair and America is racist.

The lessons, books, poems photos and articles in these texts use this method of subliminal messaging to reinforce racism and hate while they have accomplished meeting the Florida BEST standards of reading source documents.

No wonder why our kids hate America. These texts/lessons should never be used in Florida as they are contrary to everything Gov DeSantis stated. They should never be used anywhere because they are contrary to America, God and family and filled with erroneous information.

Instead of using the scientific method (SM) as the method to solve problems, the communist results are outcome based. Everything outcome is known in advance and must always be the same. The Government has the answer, trust the government, which now chooses its experts whether public or private by diversity not excellence.

The American Medical Association (AMA), the largest national organization representing physicians and medical students in the United States, says it will set aside its long-held concept of meritocracy in favor of “racial justice” and “health equity.”

What are they really saying? We don’t need doctors any more. We will just hook the patient to some device and monitor everything. The Dr. will just get in the way.

Biden reinstituted Obama’s (AFFH) which rezones areas eliminating single family housing. Everyone must have the same size flat (apartment). Agenda 21 calls for 350 sq ft for a single person and 700 ft for a family of four.

What happens when the government demands you house illegals in your 1800 sq ft house? After all they are the victim, you are the oppressor. Your children are being taught in the name of fairness, they must do more for less otherwise they are racist. Will your children rat on you?

When feeling trumps facts and skills, mediocrity reigns. Where do America’s leaders come from if they are guided by feeling and emotions focused on hating America? What happens in the military? Do we now leave the white injured soldier on the field to be captured? Does a Muslim doctor now say I won’t treat you because you are a Jew?

Is America Worth Saving? It is not enough to pass a BILL without oversight from the people. Freedom requires work. Will you be a watchdog and look for the subliminal messaging your school?

consciousness of all whites to eliminate systemic racism and recognize we are inherently racist.

Doing so, they say, requires whites to shame themselves, accept less safety in life, and less opportunity so that Blacks can advance whether they deserve it, whether they qualify for it, or not.

Michele Obama exclaims that the protests are nearly all peaceful and only a small amount of damage was done by protesters. She ignores the devastation in major US cities and property damage running into the billions.

Think about it, if BLM was truly concerned about the slaughter of Blacks, they would take the fight to our top ten cities with worst records for Black on Black killings.

Most of the destruction primarily hurts the Black community. Murders of Blacks spiked in Chicago, NYC, Philadelphia, Detroit, DC, Atlanta, and many more - but not by Police.

More insidious is that innocent, well-meaning Americans got on the “peaceful protest” bandwagon having no idea how they were being manipulated in supporting a political purge to bring “revolution” or more euphemistically, “transformation” of government.

Yep, Americans got scammed. They dutifully marched in protest, put BLM signs on their lawns, and sent in donations by the tens of millions of dollars.

Instead, the cash goes to the campaigns of Biden, Sanders and others. Not one positive act was accomplished.

From their web site, BLM started with good intentions to “imagining and creating a world free of anti-Blackness, where every Black person has the social, economic, and political power to thrive”.

The truth is that BLM inspires vigilantes who hide among the peaceful protesters before going on a rampage. Corporations are so fearful that they send millions of dollars in donations to ward off retribution.

Even worse, some BLM leaders are avowed Marxists and Socialists. BLM leadership hate America and our history. They want to overthrow our way of life.

We know what happens when chaos breaks down society into warring factions. This has been the worldwide objective of Marxist communists for a century. If BLM were serious, they would have leadership that wants to sit down with local and state authorities to bring meaningful change through negotiation and agreement rather than violence and coercion.

We must reject and fight against vigilantes who would destroy our way of life and our ability to improve it. At stake is our freedom, our country.

TO END URBAN HOPELESSNESS,
SCHOOL CHOICE KEY

By John Kass Chicago Tribune

Violent crime is spiking in big cities across America. And what is the response of the ruling Democratic political class? As crime rises, as the mothers weep, the politicians decry the hopelessness that they attribute to systemic racism. They demand beleaguered taxpayers and businesses invest more in the neighborhoods.

It is a stale liturgy led by the faithless, the politicians reading lines from a tired script, the politically savvy activists clamoring for more resources to increase their power. And children lost in the river of violence are washed away, their names forgotten while others on the banks will inevitably take their place. In Chicago, more than 1,587 people have been shot this year alone, (some 200 more than last year at this time). The mayor and the other political actors form a chorus.

They condemn gun violence. That's much easier, politically, than calling it “street gang violence.” Calling it gun violence allows them to coalesce with progressive anti-Second Amendment forces.

If they called it by its real name, “street gang wars,” they'd be expected to do something concrete. They'd have to question the wisdom of catch-and-release Democratic prosecutors and judges. But they won't do that because they're all on the same team.

Yet there is one policy that could end habitual urban hopelessness that leads to violent crime. It would give motivated parents a fighting chance to help their children. It would be revolutionary in Chicago:

REAL SCHOOL CHOICE

By this, I mean parents would be allowed to take whatever tax dollars are spent on their children at underperforming public schools, where often only one third of freshmen make it to graduation, and instead use those tax dollars to pay tuition at better-performing private schools of their choice.

Want to end urban hopelessness? Unlock the potential in the children. Quit teaching them they're victims who can't learn. Offer them a chance. Support their families. Real school choice would have tangible benefits, and neighbors would see that it works and consider it for their children too. And that is a political problem.

Because real school choice would break the monopoly of government educrats who wield power by supporting urban public education that serves the politicians, the vendors with clout who sell products and services to schools, and the powerful teachers unions. Who comes in last in big-city public education? The children!

The kids are the powerless cash cows in this scheme. The vendors and the unions support the politicians. It is a cynical game that ruins cities. It is among the chief reasons I've become a conservative.

I've covered school strikes; I've seen union and City Hall politics from the inside out. The cynicism has been overwhelming. It infects a great city. And after decades of watching politics here, I believe that there is no other way forward than school choice.

The fact you don't hear much about it in cities where public education is disastrous, where mostly minority school children are failed by the political class, tells you how dangerous it could be. Not dangerous for the kids. Dangerous for the politicians. Because in Chicago, as in most big cities, generations of families have been underserved by failing public schools.

Democrats preach about systemic racism, so let's address it. What could be more systemically racist than a system endorsed by the political class that for generations has failed minority children and their families, but keeps the politicians and their public union allies in power?

Yet that's how the teachers unions treat successful public charter schools serving minority kids — as threats. Small steps have already been taken, but your voice needs to be heard.

The only foundation of a free Constitution is pure virtue, and if this cannot be inspired in our people, in a greater measure than they have it now, they may change their rulers, and the forms of government, but they will not obtain a lasting liberty.”

CURRENT COMMUNIST GOALS

Published 1963 Congressional Record

On Jan. 10, 1963, Congressman Albert S. Herlong Jr. of Florida read the following list into the Congressional Record as an excerpt from The Naked Communist, Cleon Skousen. Note how many of the goals are partially or fully accomplished.

- Permit free trade Permit free trade regardless of Communist affiliation and regardless of whether items could be used for war.
- Provide American Aid to all nations regardless of Communist domination.
- Grant Red China's admission to the U.N.
- Promote the U.N. as the only hope for mankind. If its charter is rewritten, demand that it be set up as a one-world government with its own independent armed forces.
- Capture one or both political parties in the United States.
- Use technical decisions of the courts to weaken basic American institutions by claiming their activities violate civil rights.
- Get control of the schools. Use them as transmission belts for socialism and current Communist propaganda. Soften the curriculum. Get control of teachers' associations.
- Use student riots to foment public protests programs or organizations which are under Communist attack.
- Infiltrate the press. Get control of book-review assignments, editorial writing, policymaking positions Infiltrate the press.
- Gain control of key positions in radio, TV, and motion pictures.
- Eliminate all laws governing obscenity by calling them "censorship" and a violation of free speech and free press.
- Break down cultural standards of morality by promoting pornography and obscenity in books, magazines, motion pictures, radio, and TV. Present homosexuality, degeneracy, and promiscuity as "normal, natural, healthy."
- Infiltrate the churches and replace revealed religion with "social" religion. Discredit the Bible.
- Eliminate prayer or any phase of religious expression in the schools on the ground that it violates the principle of "separation of church and state."
- Discredit the American Constitution by calling it inadequate, old-fashioned, out of step with modern needs, a hindrance to cooperation between nations on a worldwide basis.
- Belittle all forms of American culture and discourage the teaching of American history on the ground that it was only a minor part of the "big picture."
- Support any socialist movement to give centralized control over any part of the culture--education, social agencies, welfare programs, mental health clinics, etc.
- Eliminate the House Committee on Un-American Activities.
- Discredit and eventually dismantle the FBI.
- Infiltrate and gain control of more unions.
- Transfer some of the powers of arrest from the police to social agencies. Treat all behavioral problems as psychiatric disorders which only psychiatrists can understand or treat.
- Discredit the family as an institution. Encourage promiscuity and easy divorce.
- Emphasize the need to raise children away from the negative influence of parents. Attribute prejudices, mental blocks and retarding of children to suppressive influence of parents.
- Create the impression that violence and insurrection are legitimate aspects of the American tradition; that students and special-interest groups should rise and use united force to solve economic, political, or social problems.
- Repeal the Connally reservation so the United States cannot prevent the World Court from seizing jurisdiction over domestic problems.

When you go to vote, when you make that personal choice, stop and think: how much more of your freedoms are you ready to hand over to the communists?
