Dcn. Christopher Paul has served in parish ministry and Catholic education in New Hampshire for more than 20 years. Ordained a permanent deacon in 2014, the Lord inspired him and his wife Michelle to move to Fall River in August 2021. He is always excited to share his passion for the Gospel and his conviction that all the faithful are called to the summit of holiness. Dcn. Chris currently serves as the Diocesan Director of Adult and Child Discipleship in the Secretariat for the New Evangelization.
