

Working with Native American Victims of Violence

Virtual presentation facilitated by
Legal Aid of Nebraska

Monday, April 27 | 1:00-2:30 pm

Tuesday, April 28 | 1:00-2:30 pm

Kirby Williams, Domestic Violence Outreach Coordinator with Legal Aid of Nebraska, will be offering this virtual presentation on two separate days. Attend either day to learn how crime victimization affects Native American populations.

The following topics will be discussed:

- Historical impact of violence against Native Americans
- Significance of tribal law
- Communication techniques, cultural considerations, and unique needs of the Native American Community

PONCA TRIBE OF NEBRASKA
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROGRAM

Legal Aid OF NEBRASKA
Native American Program
Native American AccessLine 800-729-9908

To participate, please email Kirby Williams at kwilliams@legalaidofnebraska.org. You will receive a confirmation email and information on how to participate. Sign up quickly, as we are limited to the number of participants who can join.

