PREPARING THE NEXT GENERATION OF LEADERS IN SOUTH ALABAMA
TO THRIVE IN HIGH WAGE, HIGH-DEMAND INDUSTRIES

SAWDC AlabamaWorks's Generous Donation

We are grateful to SAWDC AlabamaWorks for their generous contribution of $50,000 in support of Ignite Academy for Advanced Careers.

Thank you to Bridget Wilson, SAWDC's executive director, for her unwavering commitment to workforce development in our region. Her leadership and SAWDC's continued partnership have laid a strong foundation for expanding career and technical education opportunities across Southwest Alabama.

SAWDC's contribution to Ignite will directly support students as they explore high-demand industries and prepare for successful futures.

Ignite Receives Charter Commission Approval

On May 12, Mobile Area Education Foundation's CEO Dr. Jeremiah Newell shared the vision and model for Ignite at the Alabama Public Charter School Commission's meeting. The Commission voted unanimously to approve Ignite's charter. We appreciate both the community's support of Ignite and the Commission's confidence in our vision throughout this process.
