

Special Native Issues Forum

Tlingit & Haida, First Alaskans Institute, Native Peoples Action and Sealaska are pleased to host a Special Native Issues Forum to discuss the impacts of the recent budget cuts, share our knowledge, and strategize to support thriving Native communities moving forward.

How can our Indigenous perspectives help us think about cuts to education, power cost equalization, senior benefits and other state-unfunded items for our futures? How do we protect our most vulnerable, and stand up for our rights and responsibilities as Native people to support thriving communities and families?
