SCUBA DIVING

For those that wish to SCUBA dive, there are a number of operators out of Vilanculos. You will require the relevant dive certification (PADI / NAUI etc) to join one of these dives. A dive day with the operator will comprise 2 dives as well as brunch or lunch at the operator's island base. Typically, you will leave their mainland base in the early morning and proceed to their selected dive site for the morning dive. After the morning dive you will return to their island base for brunch and to enjoy a break following which you will have an afternoon dive and then return to their mainland base directly.

It is also possible to complete the relevant international dive certification levels through these operators but this will need to be organized in advance.
