Makgadikgadi Pans

SLEEP OUT

A NIGHT UNDER THE ENDLESS BOTSWANA SKY

Sleep out under a blanket of stars across the endless Botswana sky on one of the world's largest salt flats – the Makgadikgadi Salt Pans. A place so remote both sound & light pollution are non-existent, an experience described by many as life-changing. With nothing more than a cosy bed between you and the vastness around you, the sleep out takes place on a remote salt pan in the southern area of the Makgadikgadi Pans. This is a safe and fully guided excursion with your Leroo La Tau team on hand to help setup camp, prepare meals and ensure on departure your remote sleeping place is as untouched as you found it.

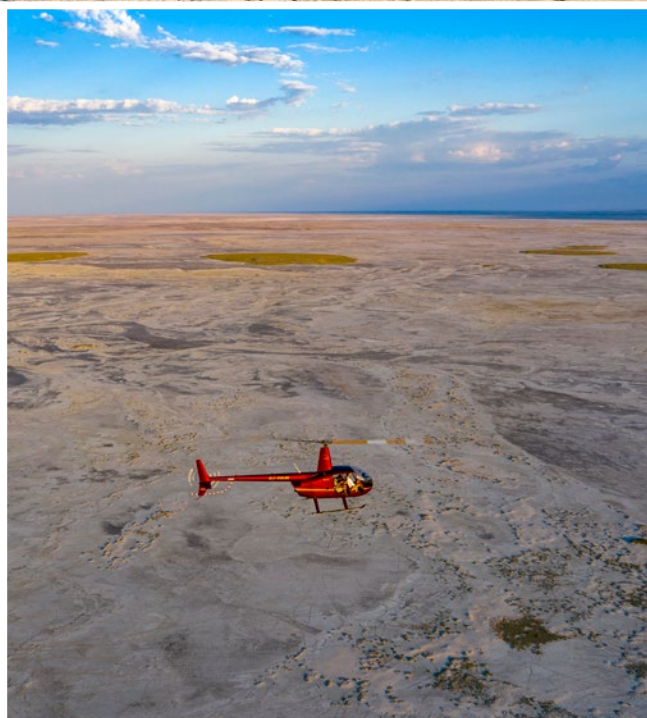

ITINERARY (DAY OF SLEEP OUT)

Early morning game drive – as per normal camp schedule.

After brunch guests to pack an overnight bag and leave the rest of their belongings in their room and prepare for departure from camp (the desert gets cold all year so be sure to pack a warm fleece and woolly hat).

- 12:30 – 13:00 Depart Leroo La Tau for the Makgadikgadi Pans. The total drive time in our expedition vehicle is approximately 4-5 hours including a one-hour drive on the tar road. The rest of the drive is a scenic drive across ever-changing grasslands and salt pans.
- 16:00 – 17:00 On arrival a team will prepare the sleep-out leaving you and the guide to explore this incredible ancient land, enjoy sundowners.
- 18:00 Camp team will prepare a delicious fireside dinner and when you're ready you can head for your cosy bedroll under the stars.
- 05:30 Light breakfast and fresh coffee is served at sunrise.
- 07:30 Camp team clean up camp and depart the salt pans for the drive back to Leroo La Tau.
- 12:00 Arrive back at Leroo La Tau.
Enjoy a late brunch and freshen up in camp.
Afternoon activity – as per normal camp schedule.
