IT'S TIME TO EFFECT CHANGE

REGISTER FOR NAMI CALIFORNIA'S REGIONAL ADVOCACY MEETING IN VENTURA

This meeting is open to all community members impacted by mental illness. Individuals and families will learn how to advocate effectively, discuss local advocacy plans for Ventura County and engage in a dialogue with local representatives.

Regional Advocacy Meetings are designed to engage family members, program leaders and the general public in local planning and problem solving with county board members, city officials and Affiliates. The meetings provide advanced opportunities for individuals to participate in processes impacting programs and service delivery.
