IT'S TIME TO EFFECT CHANGE

REGISTER FOR A REGIONAL ADVOCACY MEETING IN YOLO COUNTY

This meeting is open to all community members impacted by mental health. Individuals will be given the space to collaborate with other mental health advocates, discuss current mental health policies, brainstorm new solutions for Yolo County and engage in a dialogue with local representatives.

Regional Advocacy Meetings are designed to engage peers, family members, program leaders and the general public in local planning and problem solving with county board members, city officials and Affiliates. The meetings provide advanced opportunities for individuals to participate in processes impacting programs and service delivery.
