

See more at
» UWStout.edu/SVRI

University of Wisconsin-Stout Vocational Rehabilitation Institute 2023 Annual Report

Services | Research | Continuing Education

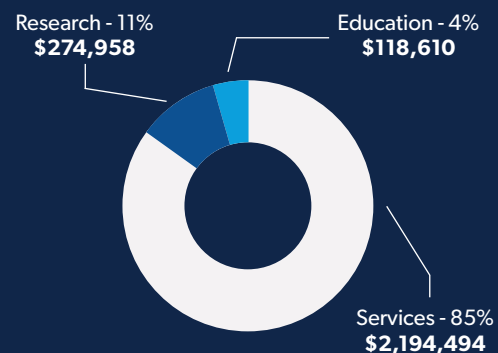

Mission: SVRI contributes to the mission of the University of Wisconsin-Stout by providing services, research, and education programs preparing vocational rehabilitation professionals to empower people with disabilities to maximize careers and independence.

Vision: SVRI aspires to be the preeminent national source of expertise, services, research, and professional education programs that advance the art and science of vocational rehabilitation.

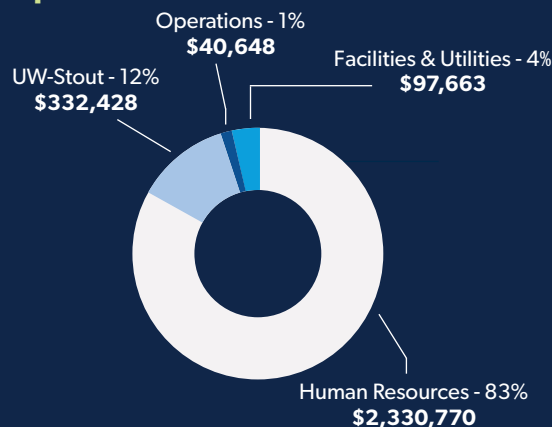

UW-Stout
Stout Vocational Rehabilitation Institute

Revenue

Expenses

NTCTRL National Training Center for Transformational Rehabilitation Leadership

$86,000
Revenue

Campus Impact

$2,674,062
Brought to UW- Stout

Eligibility and Order of Selection Unit (EOS)

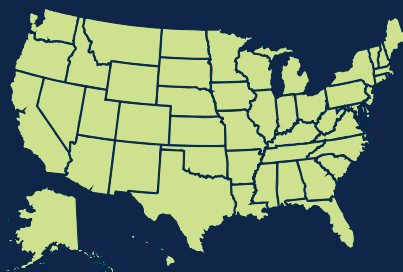

Wisconsin: 9,041
New Hampshire: 380

VR Eligibility recommendations completed for Wisconsin and New Hampshire job seekers with disabilities.

National Impact

41

State VR Agency Partnerships and Projects

In 2023 SVRI training and projects served VR professionals from all 50 states, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Northern Islands.

SVRI Employees

40

Full-time Staff

Continuing Education

4,804

VR Professionals attended SVRI trainings in 2023

SVRI Webinar Attendance: 1,348

Staff Presentations: 2,286

Innovation Inspiration Expo: 188

CRCC Exam Prep Workshop: 124

CRL (Certified Rehabilitation Leadership) Training: 858

Grant Projects

SVRI is part of the Vocational Rehabilitation Technical Assistance Center for Quality Employment (VRTAC-QE)

Provided Intensive Technical Assistance to 20 state VR agencies

National Rehabilitation Counseling Symposium attendance: 2,574

Webinar attendance: 7,081

CEU'S Provided

14,459

Individuals received continuing education units