HELPING HANDS BENEVOLENCE FUND

Congregations who have experienced damage in their communities due to recent storms may want to consider the Helping Hands Benevolence Fund.

We are all aware of the recent storms and heavy rains that have occurred in various locations in our ANE District. These unusually heavy rains have caused damage to numerous homes, business and even church buildings. If your congregation is working with persons in your community who have experienced flooding or if your own church property has had water issues due to the heavy rains, you may want to consider the Helping Hands Benevolence Fund for help in your efforts.

The ANE District Helping Hands Benevolence Fund seeks to enhance local congregational ministries in responding to natural disasters and social ills in the ANE District. Consideration is given to congregations desiring to assist individuals or families who are victims of a disaster or an ANE congregation that has itself become a victim of disaster.

Please contact the District Office for an Application.
