

Atlantic Northeast District Women's Fellowship Camp

Scholarship Fund Guidelines

Purpose: To assist women with financial aid not only to attend the District Women's Camp Event, but also to enable all women from the district to be present in the joy of fellowship and learning together.

Requests for Assistance: Any woman who needs financial assistance to be able to attend District Women's Fellowship Camp must request assistance by June 1st in the year of the camp event. Requests should be submitted to the District Women's Fellowship Secretary by using the form below.

Financial Assistance:

Financial Assistance will be based on total cost for camp including registration, lodging, and food per person. Financial Assistance will be given as follows:

1/3 of the total cost of the camp event is to be paid by the participant.

1/3 of the total cost of the camp event is to be paid by the participant's church.

1/3 of the total cost of the camp event is to be paid by the district (scholarship fund).

*All payments due by the participant and participant's church must be paid prior to the registration deadline date for Women's Camp. Payments are to be paid to Atlantic Northeast District (ANE).
