****

Church Name: Ministerio Hispano Lancaster COB

Pronunciation: mee-nee-STAIR-ee-oh ee-SPA-no. Listen to it.

Name Meaning:

Indicates that we are the Hispanic group of the Lancaster Church of the Brethren.

Spanish Phrase: "Dios es bueno." Translation: God is good. Listen to it.

Meaning: We often use this phrase in our congregation because we have come to understand that for those of us who love God, all things work together for good.

Something Special:

Our church represents seven Latin American countries, and twice a year we join with our American brothers and sisters to celebrate Love Feast with feet and hand washing.

We thank God for the impact of our church on the community.

Favorite Worship Song:

The song we love to sing at our church is "El Rey te mandó a llamar" ("The King Has Sent for You") by Danny Berrios. We like it because it resonates with God's call for our lives to participate in the Wedding of the Lamb.

Worship with Us! Services are held on Sundays at 10:15am in the chapel at Lancaster COB—1601 Sunset Avenue, Lancaster, PA 17601.
