

Christian Community Development Association (CCDA) Membership Available to COB Churches

Several members of ANE's Staff and District Board—Lexi Aligarbes, Stan Dueck, and Don Mitchell—attended the November 5-8 Christian Community Development Association (CCDA) conference in Grand Rapids, Michigan. The theme of this year's conference was Shalom.

CCDA wants to see wholistically restored communities with Christians fully engaged in the process of transformation. They do this through inspiring, training, and connecting Christians who seek to bear witness to the Kingdom of God by reclaiming and restoring under-resourced communities. Learn more.

If you didn't make it to the conference, all is not lost. CCDA offers valuable resources, trainings, and discounts to members all year long! Did you know that CCDA membership is available to all COB churches at no cost to you?

If interested in accessing these membership benefits, contact denominational Director of Spiritual Formation Josh Brockway at jbrockway@brethren.org.

Upcoming CCDA events:

- The Border Southwest CCDA Gathering is February 5-7, 2026, in Santa Ana, CA. The theme is "Accompaniment – Lament and Celebration."
- CCDA holds an annual conference. The next conference is October 7-10, 2026, in Richmond, VA.
