Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Blessing of the Prayer Shawls

Led by Anita Beeks & Sherry Helmcamp

God of love and comfort, we gather together to ask your blessings on these prayer shawls

We thank you for putting those in need on our hearts and in our minds so that we might fully live out your call to love and serve.

We ask that you bless these shawls and all who will receive them.

May they feel the love, comfort, and peace of your presence.

Without even knowing who will receive one of these, each one was made specifically for the person who will receive it.

May they see the intricate love and care given to these shawls, mirroring the intricate love and care that God bestows upon all people.

These shawls were made to bring warmth to someone who feels a chill.

May they feel the warm breath of the Holy Spirit as they wrap themselves with it.

These shawls were made to bring comfort to someone who feels alone.

May they feel comfort in knowing that this congregation has prayed together for them.

These shawls were made to bring peace to someone in need of prayer.

May they feel the power of our prayers as they feel the yarn winding through their fingers.

These prayer shawls were made to celebrate your presence and blessings in times of joy, for new babies, or for a new life in marriage.

May they celebrate the gift of your love and faithfulness to all generations.

These shawls were made to honor students as they graduate from high school, college, or vocational school.

May they continue to pursue your purpose in life.

These shawls were made to remind the recipient that they are part of this community.

May they feel touched by our love, moved by our guidance and held up by our support.

May the power of the Holy Spirit live and breathe within each one of us, through these shawls and through the lives that they will touch.

Shower us all with your loving Grace, O God. In the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.
