

Historical Society of Montgomery County, 1654 DeKalb, Norristown
Presents:

Reading Your House; Researching Your Home

Wednesday, May 10, 6:00-8:00 PM

This class will cover introductory topics on historic architecture including: formal and vernacular architecture, regional differences in house types (pre-1850), basic styles and construction techniques from 1700 to 1920, how to measure and draw a house, and how to look around at the landscape of houses in Montgomery County.

In addition, the class will look at documents related to house construction, occupancy deeds, probate records, mechanics' liens, maps, census and tax records, and other sources of documentary evidence related to houses. Part of this session will look at local and regional resources relating to the restoration and preservation of historic architecture.

Cost: Members $20; Nonmembers $30
