Your Guide to A
Better Retirement

With over 17 years in the industry, Wendy Beatty has spent her career helping Medicare beneficiaries sort out the complexities when entering the Medicare system. Wendy has worked internally with several carriers such as United Healthcare, Humana, Wellcare, and Aetna. She not only educates Medicare beneficiaries, but she also trains hundreds of agents to do the same and instructs continuing education courses and workshops for industry organizations. From when to apply for Medicare, how to apply, and to what other coverage a beneficiary needs, Wendy can answer all these questions.

Wendy currently resides in Batavia with her husband Steve and their two sons, Steven and Tylor. Wendy and Steve also have three four-legged fur children. During her spare time, Wendy enjoys swimming, reading and researching new technology.
