

KERI ZSCHACH

Keri grew up in Woodridge, Illinois, and started working at Seven Bridges Ice Arena in 1995 with various responsibilities including learn-to-skate and Adult Leagues. Keri is currently on the AHAI board fulfilling a position since January. Keri has been a member of the AHAI Tier II Committee and the AHAI State Tournament Committee for the past year. She has worked with the Northern Illinois Hockey League as part of the NIHL Tournament Committee for 5 years and hosts the League Championships with the Jaguar Hockey Club.

Keri has been a member of the Jaguar Hockey Club Board of Directors since 2011. While with the Jaguar organization Keri served as the Registrar for 3 years and has been President since 2014. In that time, the organization has grown tremendously due to the devoted volunteers and coaches.

Currently, Keri resides in Plainfield with her husband Ken, who is an official and coach. They have three boys: Tommy (16), a sophomore at Providence Catholic High School where he plays at the Varsity level and has been officiating for 3 years, Kenny Jr. (14) is in 8th grade and a goaltender playing travel hockey with the Jaguar Hockey Club, and Ryne (8) is in second grade and is active in travel hockey with the Jaguar Hockey Club as well.
