

African Studies Association Annual

TEACHERS' WORKSHOP 2020

For Elementary, Middle and Secondary School Educators

Saturday, November 14, 2020

12:00 - 6:00 PM EST

Followed by a showing of the award-winning documentary BlackNBlack at 7 PM.

Join us virtually for a day of engaging professional development workshops addressing Africa-related themes for K-12 teachers.

Opening performance by spoken word artist, Omekongo Dibinga

Topics will include:

Afro-futurism/Black Lives Matter/Pan-Africanism

Ancient, Medieval and Colonial History

Cultural Studies, Films and Literature

Environment and Justice

Covid-19 in Africa

Access to all other African Studies Association 2020 panels on Nov. 19 - 21 is included.
A certificate of attendance will be provided upon request.

Register at

asaoutreach.org

Tickets are $35.

Limited free Early Bird tickets available.

