

Voting is a Source of Freedom

---

My name is Kennetha White and I am a Vietnam era Veteran. I enlisted in the Army as a part of the Women's Army Corp. There I learned to appreciate freedom and the pursuit of happiness in such a controlled, disciplined, environment. Then, I hated it! Now, all I can say is "God is good."

Our Flag, the American Flag, the "Red, White and Blue", and what it stands for penetrates my heart through any crisis until freedom is won! The Red is the blood of my fellow soldiers who gave their lives for my Freedoms. I say, "Thank You". The White is for purity and innocence that we together stand independent as a nation. The Blue is for Justice for all, and that we must remain watchful and strong.

Today, I am 65 years old and have lived through segregation in the South. As the words of Martin Luther King, Jr proclaimed, "I look to a day when people will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character."

So today, we are free to vote. Did you vote in this election? Did you take 10 fellow Veterans with you?

I thank God for the opportunity through the Armed Forces to be able to have served my country at such a young age.

I was a single mom for a time, before I enlisted in the Women's Army Corp. Having spent time in the scripture, I was led by the Holy Spirit to go into the real estate from the book of Deuteronomy 28, where God commands us to possess the Land! And own Houses. This unction led me to get my real estate license where today I am a real estate broker, along with my husband, we own real estate company.

Being a Veteran helped me to buy my first home with my VA Loan. Today, the experience, knowledge and financial gain I have acquired and achieved from my military experience is phenomenal and breathtaking!

From the Words of Winston Churchill: "Success is not final; failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts." Proud to be a Veteran!

Send questions or comments to info@americanveteransvote.com.