- Presenters will walk participants through several platforms, tech tools and programs for teachers to utilize in class and online to enhance students' reading and writing skills, learning experience and engagement.
- Weekly sessions are recorded presentations to watch at your convenience, and to allow participants to immediately apply their learning.
- Participants will also have the opportunity to engage in the online discussion forum to connect and collaborate with their colleagues and the program director.
- Join us in this eight-week session to learn new tech tools, ask questions, discuss topics and apply your learning in the classroom.

Evidence shows that technology and online learning are improving learning outcomes for most students and increasing student engagement.
