MDDC Online Legislative Advocacy Training

The Massachusetts Developmental Disabilities Council is Offering an Online Legislative Advocacy Training for people with developmental and intellectual disabilities.

The Council's Virtual Legislative Advocacy Training will consist of two separate 1-hour sessions.

Session 1: Will discuss the legislative process, specifically: what is a law, who are the "players" in state and federal government, how a bill becomes a law, and how to find out who your legislators are.

Session 2: Will cover how to be involved in the legislative process. Specifically: what is legislative advocacy and why it is important, ways and tips on how to connect with your legislator during COVID19, and the importance of voting/how to vote, etc.

Please select Either Option 1 or Option 2 on your application.

☐ Option 1: Session 1: Tuesday Aug 11, 2020 11-12
Session 2: Tuesday Aug 18, 2020 11-12

Or

☐ Option 2: Session 1: Wednesday August 12, 2020 2:00-3:00
Session 2: Wednesday August 19, 2020 2:00-3:00

For Additional Information: Contact Kristopher Callahan at Kristopher.L.Callahan@mass.gov or 617-770-7676 ext. 107