Research Study Recruitment Flyer

The Harvard Law School Project on Disability (HPOD) is seeking Massachusetts adults with intellectual disabilities to participate in a study about their Individual Supports Plan (ISP) processes!

- Are you 18 years old or older?

- Do you have an intellectual or developmental disability?

- Do you receive services from the Massachusetts Department of Developmental Services (DDS)?

- Do you have an Individual Supports Plan (ISP) and want to share your experiences?

- The Harvard Law School Project on Disability (HPOD) wants to make sure the voices of persons with intellectual disabilities are heard.

- We will invite eligible persons to 2 interviews and 1 focus group with HPOD researchers over Zoom.

- Each interview will last about 1 hour, and the focus group meeting interview will last 1 hour and 30 minutes.

- We will ask you to share your thoughts and opinions about your ISP process with us.

- We will also provide you information about your rights in the ISP process and answer questions you may have.

- You will receive a $50 gift card for completing the study.

- We will share your experiences with people to help improve the ISP process in the future.

- To learn more or sign up, contact:
  - Hezzy Smith, HPOD's Director of Advocacy Initiatives, at 617-384-0307 or msmith@law.harvard.edu; or
  - Anne Fracht, HPOD's Self-Advocacy Associate, at 617-823-8567 or afracht@law.harvard.edu.

hpod Harvard Law School Project on Disability