

Northeast Region

Coordinator: TBD

Email: info@wearemass.org

Hello everyone! Just popping in your inboxes (yet again!) to wish you a happy October, with all treats and hopefully fun tricks.

This September, we talked about other local self-advocacy groups and how to get involved with them. We also had fun with Fall Madlibs and trivia. At the bottom of this document will be a glimpse of some of our awesome mad-libs.

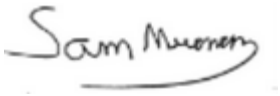

In addition, we talked about the conference! It's very important for you all to remember that the conference sign ups end on October 11th, so if you're going to come around, make sure you sign up when you can.

We also talked about voting and the process involved. I want to say thank you to everyone who participated in that discussion for not getting too political and for staying respectful!

The October Northeast Regional Meeting will be October 16th, from 4pm to 5:30pm. If you're new to these meetings, please sign up on https://northeast-regional-meeting.eventbrite.com/ I hope to see you all there!

From Sam Muench with support from his awesome team, Daysiree Perez-Batista, Parker Gambale and Jenna DeSpirito.

Happy
Halloween!

Prompt: changing of the leaves...

Every running year, the woman start to change color, signaling the fuzzy season is upon us. It's a beautiful time of year when the rolls of toilet paper turn vibrant shades of fuschia and the air becomes crisp and unsure. People from all over come to witness the slimy beauty of nature's transformation.

Autumn Mad Lib

Prompt: Autumn...

In the fall, the loud leaves change color to brown and jump off the trees. The cool breeze makes me want to travel through the ugly table and pick some leopards. It's the perfect time to wear shirt and drink a hot cup of coffee.
