

Planning A Life: College and Beyond

Saturday, July 25 | 10:00-2:30 pm
Schrafft's Center in Charlestown, MA

Are you 16-21 years old? Planning a Life (PAL) is a one-day transition conference for young people and their parents, caregivers, and professionals that support them.

Don't miss this once-a-year event:

- Meet other young people planning their futures—just like you
- Explore different college options and pathways
- Discover differences between high school and college
- Learn about campus resources and supports that can help you succeed

Young people attend free with a registered parent or caregiver.
(this is not a drop-off event)
