Hey there Rainbow!

Thank you to everyone who came to the Let's Talk About Sex workshop at the conference and shared great ideas!

At the February Rainbow Group we talked about Black LGBTQ+ people in our history who have helped to make the world a better place. Here are some of the people we learned about:

Bayard Rustin

He was an LGBTQ+ and civil rights activist known for being an adviser to MLK Jr. He was the main organizer of the March on Washington in 1963. You can learn more about Bayard by watching the documentary Brother Outsider.

Marsha P. Johnson

She was a transgender rights activist and was part of the Stonewall uprising of 1969. She helped start the Street Transgender Action Revolutionaries to give housing and support to homeless LGBTQ+ youth and sex workers. You can watch the documentary The Death and Life of Marsha P. Johnson to learn about Martha.

On March 9th we will have the Wednesday Rainbow Social meeting at 5:30-7:30pm ET. We will talk and play a game.

On March 29th we will have the Tuesday meeting at 5:30-7:00pm ET.
