Hey everyone, can you believe it? We're halfway through the year already! Happy June, and happy pride month!

This past May, we played a bit of old-fashioned Jeopardy, did some madlibs, and reviewed events for the future. Below is one of the madlibs we made!

SPRING GARDEN!

Planting a vegetable garden is not only fun,
it also helps save unicorns. You will need (noun/s)
a piece of silly land. You may need (adjective)
a Sue to keep the Sam's and (noun) (noun/s)
Daysiree's out. As soon as rainbow is here (noun/s) (noun)
you can go out there with your hammer and (type of tool)
plant all kinds of Kristin's. Then in a few (noun/s)
months, you will have corn on the Jo Jo Siwa, who just turned 23 (noun)
and big, tall flowers.
(adjective)

The Northeast Regional Meeting is June 17th, from 4 to 5:30pm. Our two drop ins are June 11th from 5:30pm to 7pm, and June 24th, from 4:30pm to 6pm.

I wanted to give a shout out to the people at the Hogan Regional Center who have been running their own regional self-advocacy meetings once a month. I attended one of them and was very impressed with what they've been setting up.

They currently have a petition they've been trying to get signatures for to reopen their local pool. I personally added my name to their list and I've been told they're looking for anyone to add their own names. So please feel free to send an email with your name to sam.muench@wearemass.org if you are interested in signing that petition yourself. It seems like a noble and worthy cause! I will forward along that information so they can add you to the list.

I know we're gonna have an awesome June. I can just feel it!

I'll see you when I see you.
