MCAofGA Announces New Partnership with Private Housing Network

The Minority Coaches Association of Georgia (MCAofGA) is pleased to announce a new partnership with the Private Housing Network Keller Williams Sports & Entertainment, a collective of over 1,000 professional real estate agents serving over 330 markets across North America who have experience working directly with coaches and their families. In addition to helping MCAofGA Members find or sell a property, the Private Housing Network will educate and assist current MCAofGA Members with real estate.

Through this partnership, the Private Housing Network will assist coaches with:

- Buying or leasing a home or apartment
- The sale of primary and secondary residences (listings)
- Residential, commercial, or land investment opportunities (rental properties, flip houses, etc.)
- Real estate education

Members of the MCAofGA and their families have access to a private online portal upon completing their membership registration at www.mcaofga.com. After registration, they can complete a questionnaire outlining their real estate goals. The questionnaire is filtered directly to the Private Housing Network's executive leadership team, who will hand-select local experts to reach out and discuss your real estate needs.

Housing Assistance

Whether you would like to buy, rent, sell, or find an investment property, the private housing network's network of real estate agents covers over 330 markets across North America, providing unparalleled resources and the ability to fulfill any housing need.

Education

The Private Housing Network's top priority is to serve as an educational resource to MCAofGA Members interested in expanding their real estate knowledge. From learning the basics of first-time home ownership to purchasing land to build an investment property, the Private Housing Network works hand in hand with coaches to make informed decisions and achieve their real estate goals.

MCAofGA and PHN will equip members interested in attending our one-on-one educational sessions with all the tools necessary for success—a well-rounded knowledge of the housing market and the confidence to make savvy investment decisions.

"The MCAofGA partnership with the Private Housing Network is a testament to their expertise in working with coaches. They provide a phenomenal opportunity to help coaches with their real estate needs, from buying or selling to learning more about opportunities that exist within the real estate industry," said Dr. Ahmand Tinker, Executive Director. The Senior Leadership team's passion for real estate and helping coaches, combined with their extensive experience, makes them a trusted resource in the industry.

About the MCAofGA: The Minority Coaches Association of Georgia (MCAofGA) is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization established to increase the knowledge and development of minority coaches by building character, leadership qualities, time management skills, and professionalism through athletics. Since 2010, the Association has worked to establish a reputable household name to serve minority coaches in all aspects better. In addition to providing professional development, the MCAofGA offers various member services, builds corporate and community partnerships, and works diligently to improve its membership.
