

Biotechnology Summer Workshop for High School Students

Like science and technology? Interested in working in a lab? See what FLCC Biotech can offer you!

2017 BIOMAN ACADEMY

High-tech. Hands-on. Lab-based.

July 24-26

9:00am-3:30pm

Finger Lakes Community College
Biotechnology Labs; Room 3675
(Seneca Wing, Third Floor)
3325 Marvin Sands Drive
Canandaigua, NY 14424

Free Workshop for 12 talented Scientists!

Open to incoming high school Juniors and Sophomores who have taken at least one biology course. Learn how to:

- Manipulate DNA
- Extract proteins from cells
- Grow bacterial and mammalian cells in culture

Lunch will be provided

- Learn about careers in the field of biotechnology!
- Meet and network with industry professionals biotech college students and advisors!
- Learn exciting new techniques and real-world applications!

Participation in all 3 days is required.

To apply or for more info, contact:
jessica.halliley@flcc.edu

This professional development opportunity is provided through the Northeast Biomanufacturing Center and Collaborative (NBC2) and funded by the National Science Foundation, NSF Award #1501631

